THE SENIOR CLASS OF

SOUTH SIDE HIGH SCHOOL

ANNOUNCES ITS

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE SIXTH

NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-SIX

AT HALF AFTER EIGHT O'CLOCK

SOUTH SIDE GYMNASIUM

FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

To The Tune Of This Old House

Verse: Let us sing of South Side High School,
Let us sing of teen-age days,
How we worked and slaved and struggled,
In an academic maze.
We have weathered freshman English,
And have lived through Caesar too.
Now each passing year brings with it,
That much harder work to do.

Chorus: Ain't agonna need this school much longer,
Ain't agonna need this school much more,
Ain't got time to waste a minute,
Gotta make a perfect score.
Just got time to study harder,
And to cram for each exam
Ain't agonna need this school much longer,
We're gettin' ready to graduate.

Verse: Let us sing of South Side High School,
Let us sing of Archers game,
Of the teams we've cheered to victory
And the boys who brought us fame.
Let us sing of fun and frolic,
And of dates and young romance.
When we found that there was magic,
In another Junior's glance.

Chorus: Repeat above

Verse: Time is passing on so quickly,
And our school days will be o'er
But our school will be awaitin'
For new students ever more.
This old school will be a beacon,
This old school will be a light;
Pointing out the road to learning
Guiding young hearts in the right.

Chorus: Repeat above

Adapted by Martha Beck

PAPA LOVES MAMBA

Papa loved high school
Mama loved high school
They had just loads of fun
They said when work was done
High school was such a delight. UH

Papa loved football
Mama loved football
Dad was best on the team
Mom used to watch and scream
As he was hurt in a fight

He loved math
She loved art
He was dumb
She was smart
She would sigh
When he passed
Dad was quite a cool guy and
Mom was a real slick lass UH

Papa loves dances
Mama loves dances
Gives them that zing again
Seems like its spring again
Any old dance is all right UH

Papa loves banquets
Mama loves banquets
Chicken and fish are right
Oh what a luscious sight
They'd love this banquet tonight --Donna Hoover

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the horse and buggy days
As a soph came the jalopy that I thought was fast and gay;
Now, as a Junior I am streaking in a plane through the clouds of gray
As I go on my way
Glory, Glory, I'm a Junior
Glory, Glory, I'm a Junior
Glory, Glory, I'm a Junior
As I go on my way.

WHEN YOU DROVE A BUICK

When you drove a Buick, A big yellow Buick
And I drove a little red Ford,
You tried to guy me, as you passed by me,
But your insults I ignored;
Then you struck a mudhole, a nice slippery mudhole,
Your engine raced and roared,
Then I pulled out your Buick,
your big yellow Buick
At the tail of my little red Ford.

OFFICERS SONG

Tune: Gilly Gilly Ossenfeffer Katzenellen Bogan By the Sea

There's a little man
By the name of John
He's our president
And he gets around
He's got the pep and personality,
He's our dilly dilly officer and you will
Always find him on the beam

Terry is our veep
He is really great
In basketball
He is first rate
He is lots of fun and will greet you cheerfully
He's our dilly dilly officer and you will always find him on the beam.

The officers are friendly, a smile on every face
We are so proud to have them here--to run our Junior race.

There's a lovely gal
By the name of Lu
She handles the dough
And takes notes too
She loves to work and does it merrily
She's our dilly dilly officer and you will always find her on the beam.

They're our dilly dilly officers and you will always find them on the beam.

Here at the head
Of society
There's Jim and Nan and Sharon, three
They work real hard to see that we're the best They're our dilly dilly officers and you will always find them on the beam.

Our officers are really instead of three you will find six
In the Junior class they are nothing less than swell They're our dilly officers and you will always find them on the beam.

There are two more great people
That help us every day
They help advise our Junior class
To make sure we're okay.

They're our dilly dilly workers and We would like to really say they're swell.

--Donna Hoover

There's another man
Who helps us work
Not a single job
Does he ever shirk
He's our principal and we want to wish him well
He's our dilly dilly principal and we would like to tell him that he's swell

ORDER OF WORSHIP

(The service will follow without announcement.)

The Piano Prelude — Emi[illegible]

The Class Processional

The congregation will rise as the graduates enter and remain standing for the Invocation and the Hymn.

The Invocation:

The Hymn—"America" — Henry Carey

My country 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing; Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain-side, Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee, Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love; I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills, Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze, And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song: Let mortal tongues awake, Let all that breathe partake, Let rocks their silence break, The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God! to Thee, Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing: Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might, Great God, our king.

The Solo—"He Smiled On Me" — O'Hara
Janet Von Gunten

The Word of God — Matthew 7: 13-27

The Baccalaureate Prayer

The [illegible] — "Beside Still Waters" — by Hamblen
Janet Von Gunten

[illegible]ermon: — "On Having To Decide"
[illegible]rvin E. Petznik, Pastor, First E. U. B. Church

[illegible] O God Our Help In Ages Past" — Isaac Watts [illegible]cgation will rise for the Hymn)

[illegible]n ages past, Our hope for years to come,
[illegible] shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone, And our defence is sure.

O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while life shall last, And our eternal home.

The Benediction:

The Lord bless you and keep you,
The Lord make His face to shine upon you
And be gracious unto you.
The Lord lift up his countenance upon you
And give you peace. Amen.

The Recessional — Emily Bailey
(The congregation will remain seated until the class has marched out.)

Not to be conquered by these headlong days,
But to stand free: to keep the mind at brood
On life's deep meaning, nature's altitude
Of loveliness, and time's mysterious ways;
At every thought and deed to clear the haze
Out of our eyes, considering only this,
What man, what life, what love, what beauty is,
This is to live, and win the final praise.

Directions for Applying Holter Moniter & Supplies Needed

Holter — Battery(charged to 14-hold for 30 sec.) — Acetone — 1 Disposable electrode
Electrodes — Tape for Holter — Adhesive tape — with rough edge
Small gauze squares — Scissors

Wind tape on the Holter (30 revolutions)
Insert battery
Determine patients skin condition(if oily use flat electrodes & elasticon tape--if regular use disposable electrodes and transpore tape

Thoroughly clean areas where electrodes are to be placed with acetone-- scrub till very red-- this is very important --if not cleaned properly you will not achieve good contact.

Positions for the 5 electrodes: knob on collar bone both right & left bottom of ribs on right side
V1 & V5

All electrodes are to be placed on the bone.

The electrodes are color coded and applied in this order:

FLAT ELECTRODES
Blue- left clavicle
White- right clavicle
Red- V5
Orange- V1
Green- Right ribs

DISPOSABLE ELECTRODES
BLACK- Left clavicle
GREEN- Right ribs
ORANGE- V1
BROWN- V5

Attach electrodes properly and securewith tape all wiring and control. Once electrodes are plugged into control and machine is set you may start recording by flipping switch to the on position, lock the recorder and proceed to tape wiring down.

After wiring is all taped down place recorder in the case and lock.

Give patient diary and explain thoroughly as to what is needed in order to make the proper evaluation when the tape is scanned.

Be sure to record starting time and plan to remove Holter 25 hours later.

When using the flat electrodes apply small ammount of electrode jel to the metal surface of the electrode. Use only small ammount.

When Holter is removed clean well with alcohol and for better contact the next time the flat electrodes are used use typewriter eraser on the metal surface, be sure to get all the eraser particles out of electrode.

"HAPPY DAYS"

ARE HERE AGAIN!!

The Fabulous Fifties Gang has planned

a nostalgia trip to Hall's

Yes, return to those "HAPPY DAYS" of the Fabulous Fifties by joining the South Side High School Class of 1956 for its 20th Reunion. Find out if Morrie Sanderson still has that sly twinkle in his eye. Learn if Nancy Showalter and Luba Gouloff still have those sparkling cheerleader personalities.

The big event will be:

20th Reunion Class of 1956

7 PM to midnight Saturday, September 18, 1976

at Lester's (the party room at rear of Hall's)
Bluffton Road, Fort Wayne, Indiana

Cocktail Buffet Dancing Cash Bar

(There will be no seated dinner; let's circulate, greet old friends and then eat when you want to.)

How about a nostalgia tour through the "Halls of Ivy"? We've arranged for South Side to be open from 2 until 3:30, Saturday, September 18th. We'll meet you at the Calhoun Street entrance. Parents, children and friends all invited.

Here's how you can join in on the fun:

1. Sign and return the reservation form along with your check for $7.00 per person, made payable to "Class of '56". Reservation deadline - September 10th. Mail to:

Class of '56
7207 Winnebago Drive
Fort Wayne, Indiana 46805

CLASSMATE SEARCH

The Reunion Planning Committee hasn't been able to contact some members of the Class of '56. Their names appear below. If you have any suggestion where or how these classmates can be contacted, please jot down the information on the reservation form.

Instructions for Seniors 1956

1. Wear your cap and gown to school Friday, June 1.
2. Wear your cap and gown to school Wednesday evening, June 6. Wear the tassel on the right.
3. Keep the box in which the cap and gown came. Place the box on the seat in Room S which corresponds to your row and seat on the printed commencement program, Wednesday evening. Be sure you place the box on the right seat.
4. Be in Room S by 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 6, and stay there until we are ready to march to the gymnasium. We shall march directly from the study hall to the north door of the gym. You will march by twos, except in the case of the absence of someone. If your regular partner - as shown by the order in the printed program - is not present, you must march by yourself. If you get out of place in the line of march, the arrangements at the giving of diplomas will be thrown out of order.

   You will march into the gymnasium on the east side of the chairs. The odd numbers - 1, 3, 5, etc. - will be on the right. Number 1 in each row will go in first, then 2, etc.
5. Remain standing until I give you the signal to sit.
6. When it is time to get the diplomas, you will march out the west gate by the hand-ball court, and up the incline which leads to the upper south entrance of the gymnasium. Follow the leader.
7. You are to wait back of the curtain until your name is called, then step through to get your diploma.
8. When you receive your diploma, take it with your right hand. With your left hand, place the tassel of your cap from the right to the left side of the cap.
9. Go down the steps in front to your regular place. Be seated when the whole row has returned.
10. Be as quiet as possible when making this trip.
11. When the band plays the last selection, stand when I signal, march out the west side of the chairs in twos, out the north door, and return to room S.
12. Return the cap and gown to the box on your seat in Room S, immediately. These must be left the evening of the commencement.

BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate sermon will be given by Rev. Ervin E. Petznik of the First Evangelical United Brethren Church. The services will be held in our gymnasium. You are to meet in Room S at 7 o'clock, Sunday evening, June 3. The service will start promptly at 7:30. Wear your cap and gown. There will be room for all who care to attend this service.

SENIOR DANCE

The Senior Dance will be held in the gymnasium Tuesday evening, June 5, starting at 8:30.

DIPLOMAS

If there is any question about the diploma which you receive, please see me immediately after the Commencement program is concluded.

Jeanie babe,
These last few years
have surely gone by fast.
It seems like only yesterday we were green, obnoxious freshmen.
I really have appreciated your friendship these last years. Good luck in the future.

your friend,
Lamont Hansen

Jean,
I'll never forget

Jean,
I'm a real cute gal who this semester we really have enjoyed having had some fun. At we had a ball. I wish you all the luck in the world with Phi Mu and hope everything turns out right. Thanks always Connie

I guess we could talk it over about the same
Have a P.D.A. (Phi Delt Angel.) But that's the it goes. I hope you have lots of fun this and also next fall a Snowball Ball and I'll see you at the Heart ball

Our Chief Engineer

Our characters must be built in school so they will withstand the stress and strains of future life. Mr. R. Nelson Snider, the chief engineer of our well-balanced educational program, has laid our classroom and extra curricular activities for the building of our characters.

Our Architect

Responsible for the master plans of the city school system, Mr. Aaron T. Lindley has helped us all in the shaping of our futures. By his hard work and understanding personality, he is well worthy of the high esteem each student has for him.

Aides

Miss Pauline Van Gorder, our Dean of Girls, helps us to build on rock rather than sand. Her sincerity and willingness to help have proved her to be a reliable source of aid at all times.

Mr. Ora Davis, guidance director, gives advice on future careers and colleges, a help which has laid the cornerstone for many successful Archers. His individual interest in each student has earned for him the admiration of all.

The idol of every future "Miss Perfect Secretary" is Miss Frances Stobaugh, South Side's efficient registrar. Not only is she a capable and resourceful secretary, but she is always willing to help student and teacher alike solve their problems.

Seniors

Build today, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall tomorrow find its place.

National Honor Society

Every semester the graduating seniors hold their breaths and cross their fingers as the door of their rooms open on Tag Day. This is the day on which the seniors are announced for the National Honor Society. This society limits its members to those pupils excelling in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. At the beginning of the seniors' last semester a list of the upper third of the class is issued to all teachers. From this list, the teachers send in their comments on the pupils they wish or do not wish to be named to the NHS. A committee meets and from the teachers' suggestions picks the pupils for the final list. The national rules limit selection to not more than 15 per cent of the senior class.

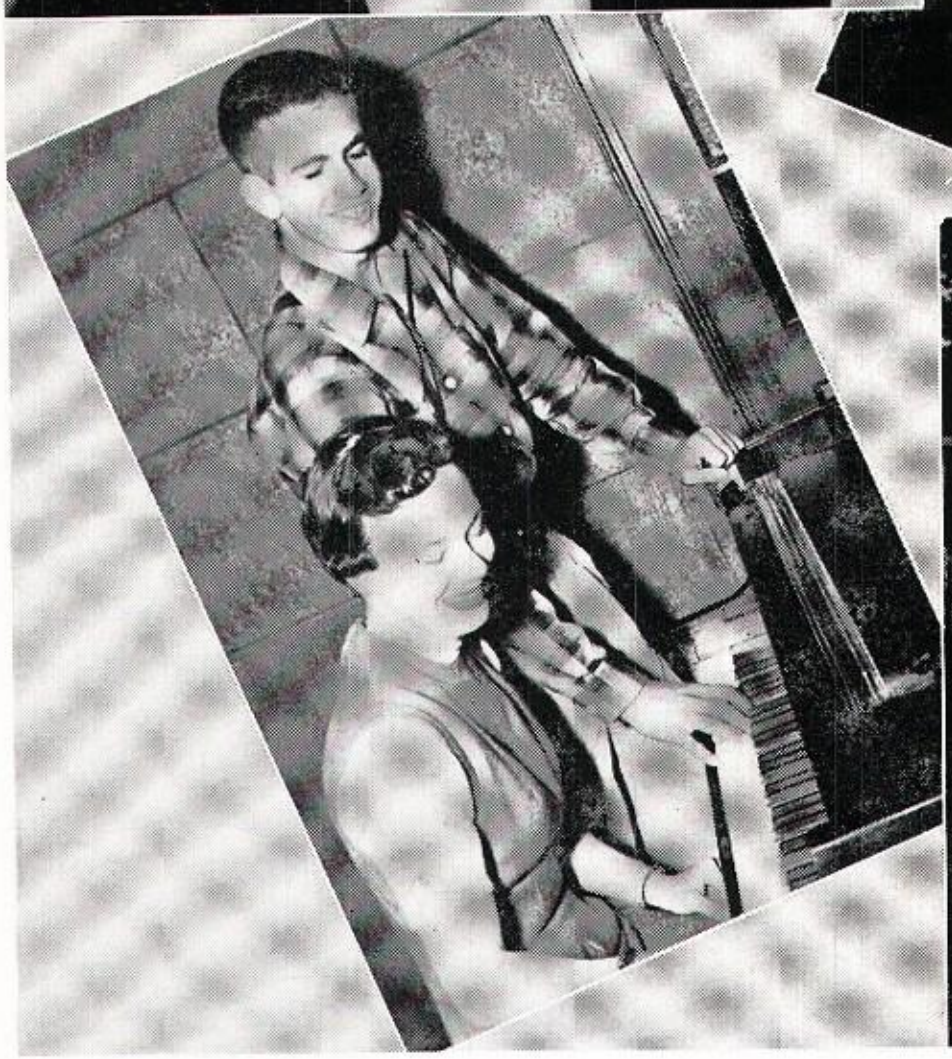
Senior Voting Shows

Upper left: Nancy Showalter and Bill Campbell, a couple of body builders, were voted this year's "best girl athlete and best boy athlete."

Lower left: Morrie Sanderson and Becky Brinkroeger, "cutest couple," build dreams for tomorrow.

Upper right: A less "perfect lady and gentleman" might not be so patient with this over-equipped typewriter, but George McClain and Janice Hattendorf will probably figure out some way for these rollers to take turns.

Lower right: Dave Klemm and Merna Mosel may convince one that they have been framed as "the class clowns," but their angelic light casts an impish glow.



These Are the Tops

Upper left: Judy Hicks and Dave Eitman take the cup as "best dancers" again in this year's class poll; but, before they walk off with it, a $1,000 bill (Texas style) steals the show.

Upper right: Displaying some pleasing personal construction are John Lewis, "most handsome boy," Sue Berlien and Lynn Neuenschwander, who tied for "cutest girl."

Lower right: Terry Miller and Deanne Wissner built the firmest foundations and did it as the "boy and girl contributing the most to the school." Terry, "boy with the best personality," opens a car door so that Luba Gouloff, "girl with the best personality," can emerge in full beam.

Senior officers and advisers seated left to right are Sharon Davis, social council; Miss Mary Graham, adviser, and Luba Gouloff, secretary-treasurer. Standing are Bill Campbell, social council; Morrie Sanderson, president; Jim Fuzy, social council; Mr. J. H. McClure, adviser, and Nancy Showalter, vice-president.

Good Leaders . . . Strong Builders

It's hard to believe that our "high school whirl" has come to a close and we're on our way. By closing our eyes it seems like it was yesterday that we stood in awe as freshmen before the foundation of our future which we were to begin building spiritually, mentally, physically, and socially.

Even as freshmen we proved able builders and made a good foundation with a combination of work and good times, one of these being the Freshman Party, our first social event where fun was had by all.

Building rapidly we reached our Sophomore year and were ready for the framework. We chose our first class officers, John Lewis, president; Terry Miller, vice-president; Luba Gouloff, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Showalter, Sharon Davis, Jim Fuzy, social council, with Miss Deloris Lister and Mr. Robert Weber as our advisers. Our party "Magic Till Midnight" with its never-to-be-forgotten male can-can line proved a huge success, leaving us with funny and wonderful memories.

Quickly the half way mark of our building work was reached. . . . Upperclassmen, we played the traditional jaunty junior part to the hilt. Our banquet "Kelly Kapers" and prom "Sea Breeze" proved to be the two big highlights. These were made possible because of the helpful assistance of Miss Shirley Maloney and Mr. Richard Becker, class advisers, along with the officer team that guided us so well through our Sophomore year.

Seniors, at last, with the completion of our high school building days in sight. We found this year crammed with fabulous memories from the very beginning when we elected Morrie Sanderson as our president; Nancy Showalter, vice-president; Luba Gouloff, secretary-treasurer; Sharon Davis, Jim Fuzy, Bill Campbell, social council, and Miss Mary Graham and Mr. J. H. McClure to assist us through this final year.

Our Senior Reception started off a quick succession of events, next being the Alumni Dance, which brought us news of college life from friends of the class of '55. Right on the heels of the Alumni Dance followed "It's Almost Tomorrow," the Senior Banquet, with many unforgetable parties afterward.

Next came April bringing our Senior Play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." The cast consisted of Annette Voorhees, Paula McConnell, Sharon Stallings, Deanne Wissner, Sue Berlien, Sharon Grodrian, Lydia Martindale, Marcia Schultz, Stan Levine, Geraldine Fox, Dave Clark, Morrie Sanderson, Fred Procise, Phil Black, Kirk Newell, Barbara Bowyer, and Judd Lowenhar.

We chose the Ivy Queen and her court and attended the traditional ceremony. Recognition Day honoring our achievements, Baccalaureate, and our out-of-this-world Senior Prom followed, all leading to the biggest and most serious step . . . Graduation.

On June 6, as we received our diplomas, we felt a wonderful satisfaction that South Side had helped us build for the future.

Lower right: Hanging the net on Davey Jones' locker are Peggy Robinson, Deanne Wissner, Ginny Pugh, Sharon Myers, Lydia Martindale, and Sharon Stallings.

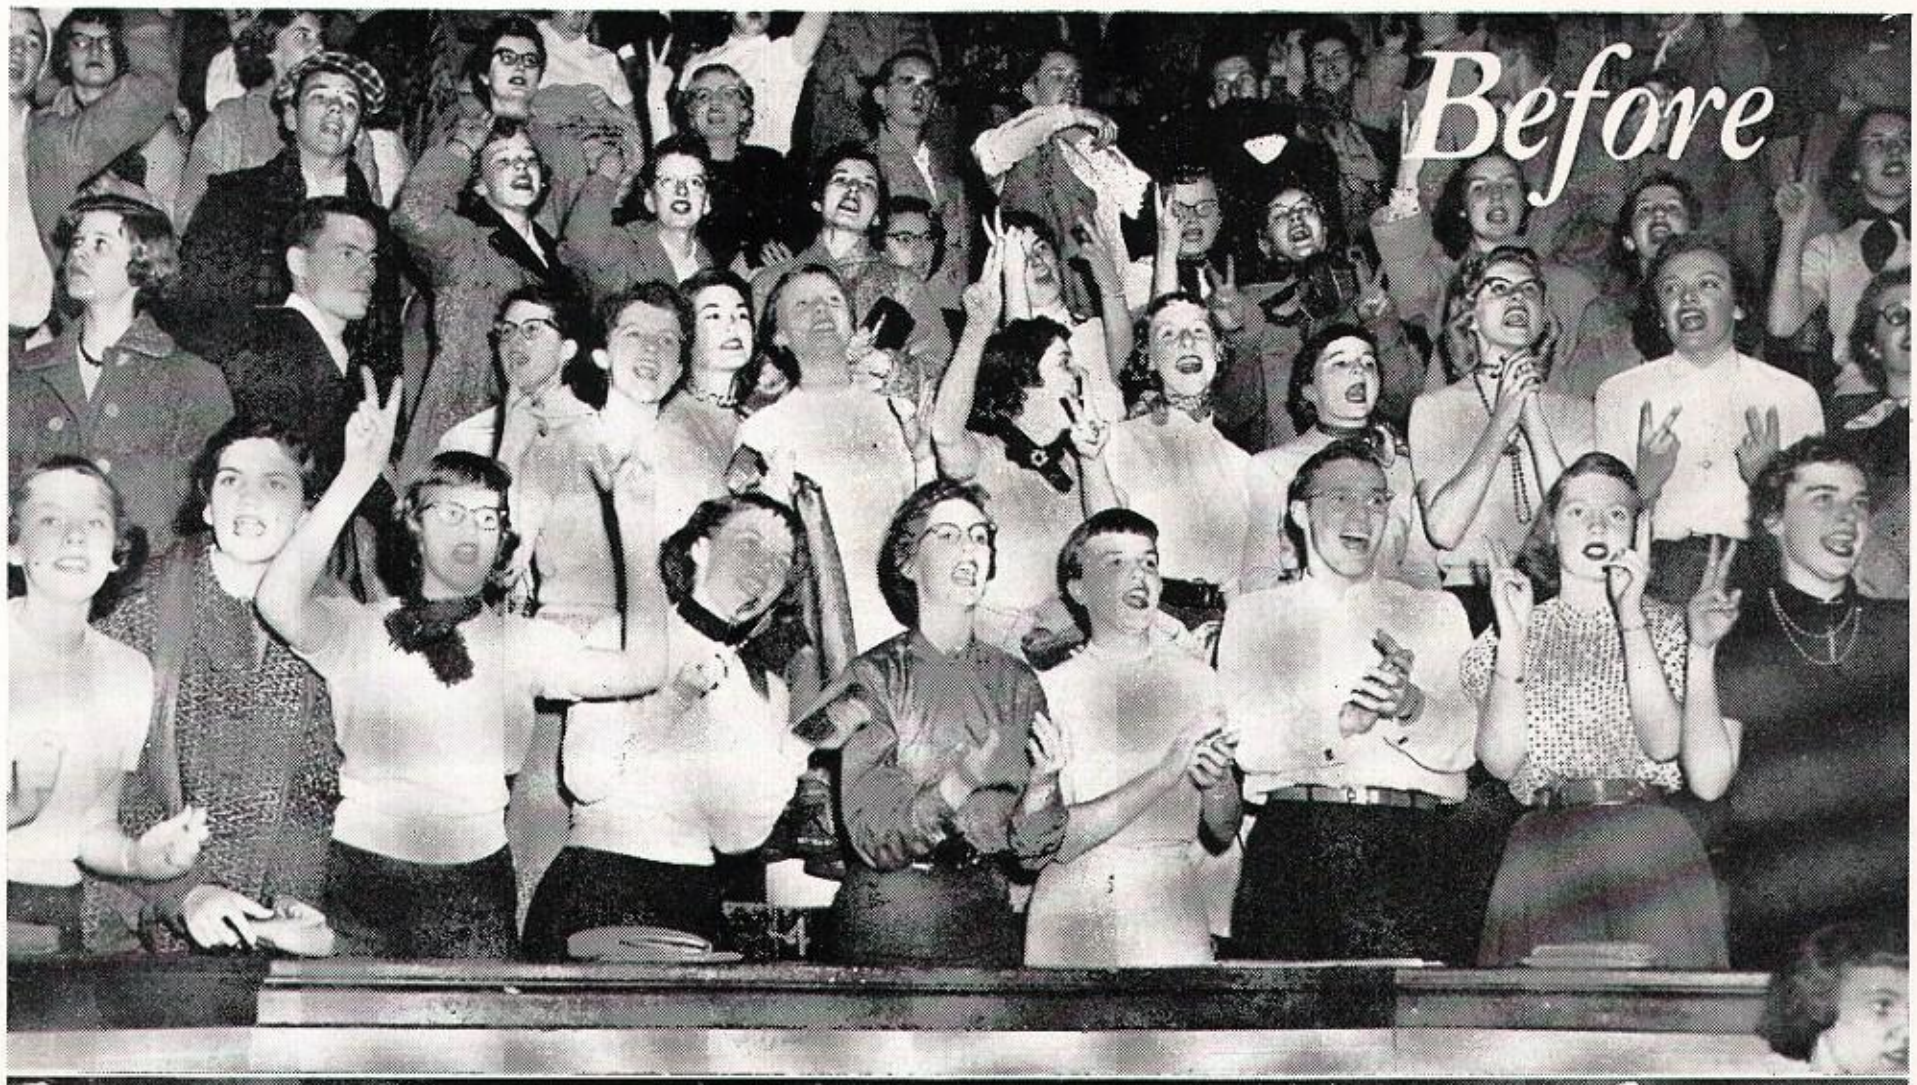
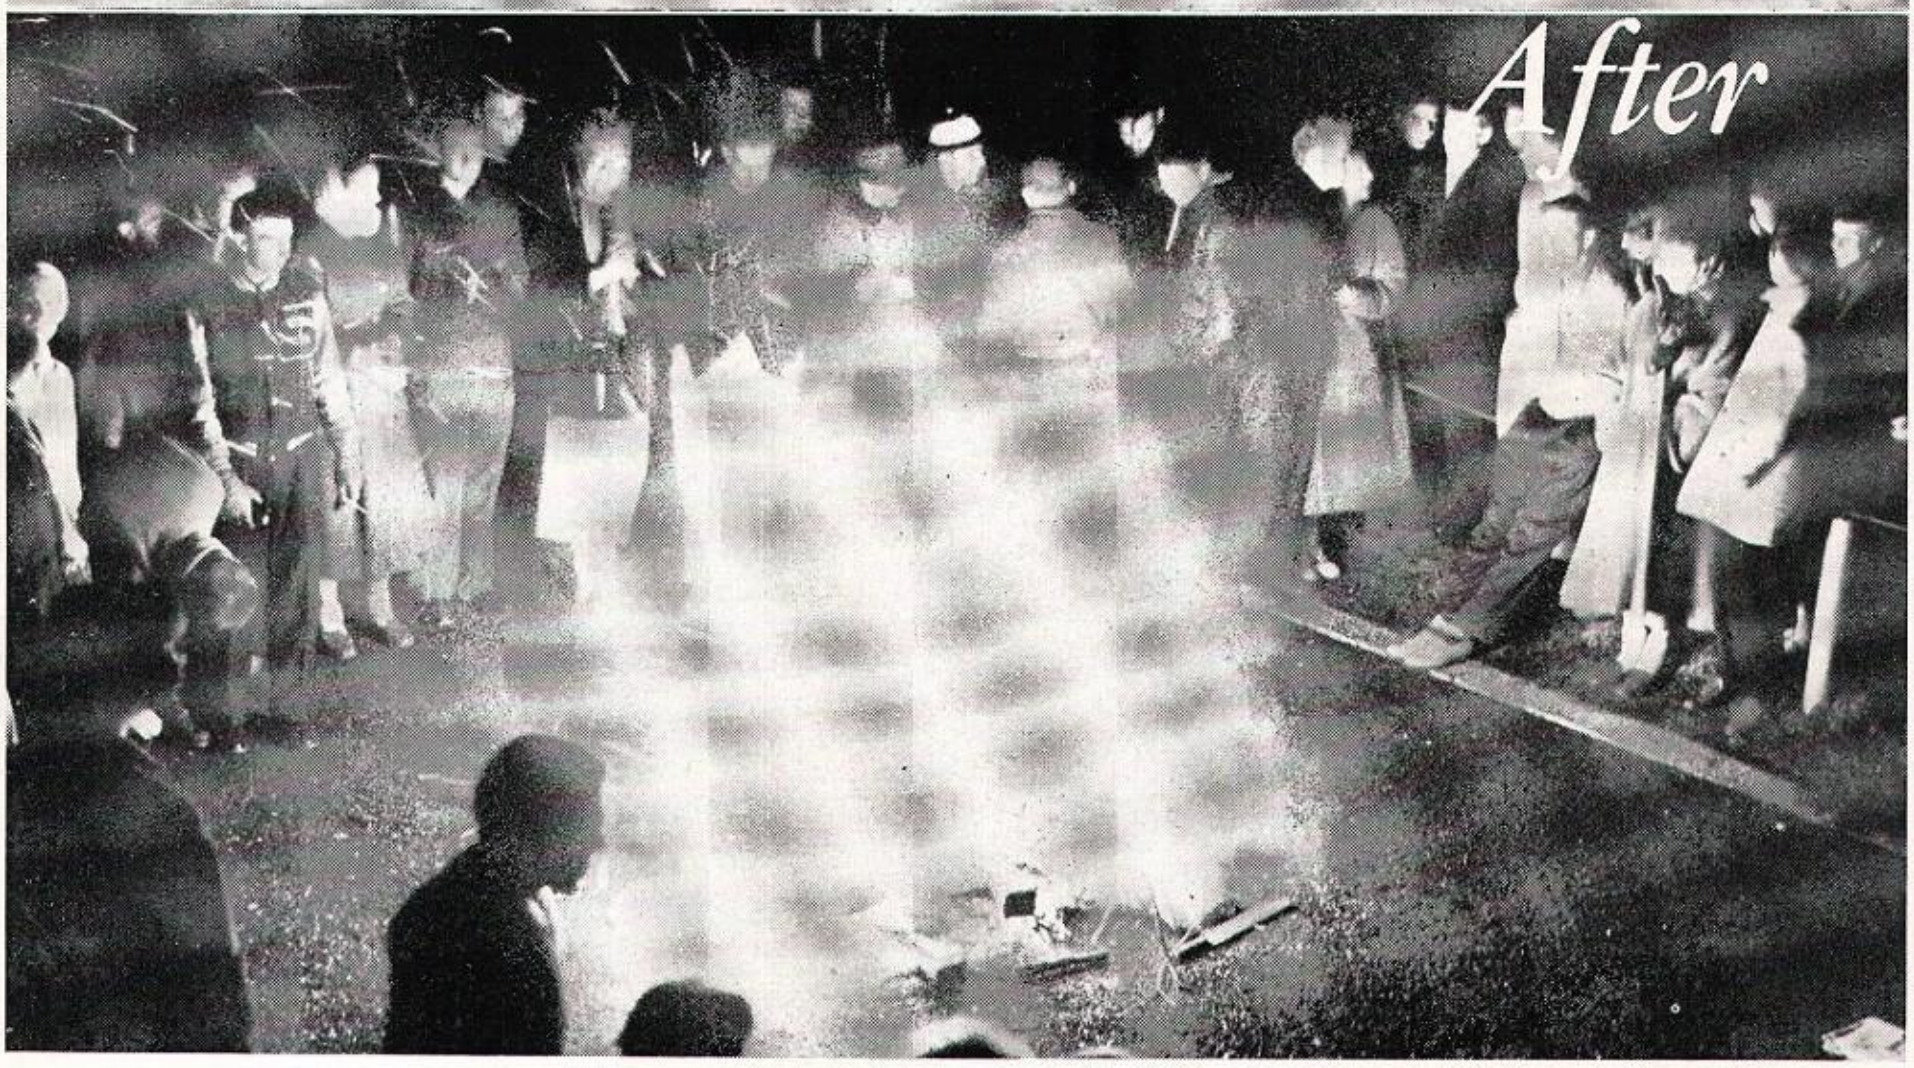
Middle right: What these '55 juniors and Mr. McClure won't do to make their prom a success.

Lower right: Where's your Bermudas, Stan? A group of senior girls and their idol, Stan Levine, look happy at last fall's Times picnic.





Upper: All energy goes into cheering on the team at mid-point during the Sectionals.

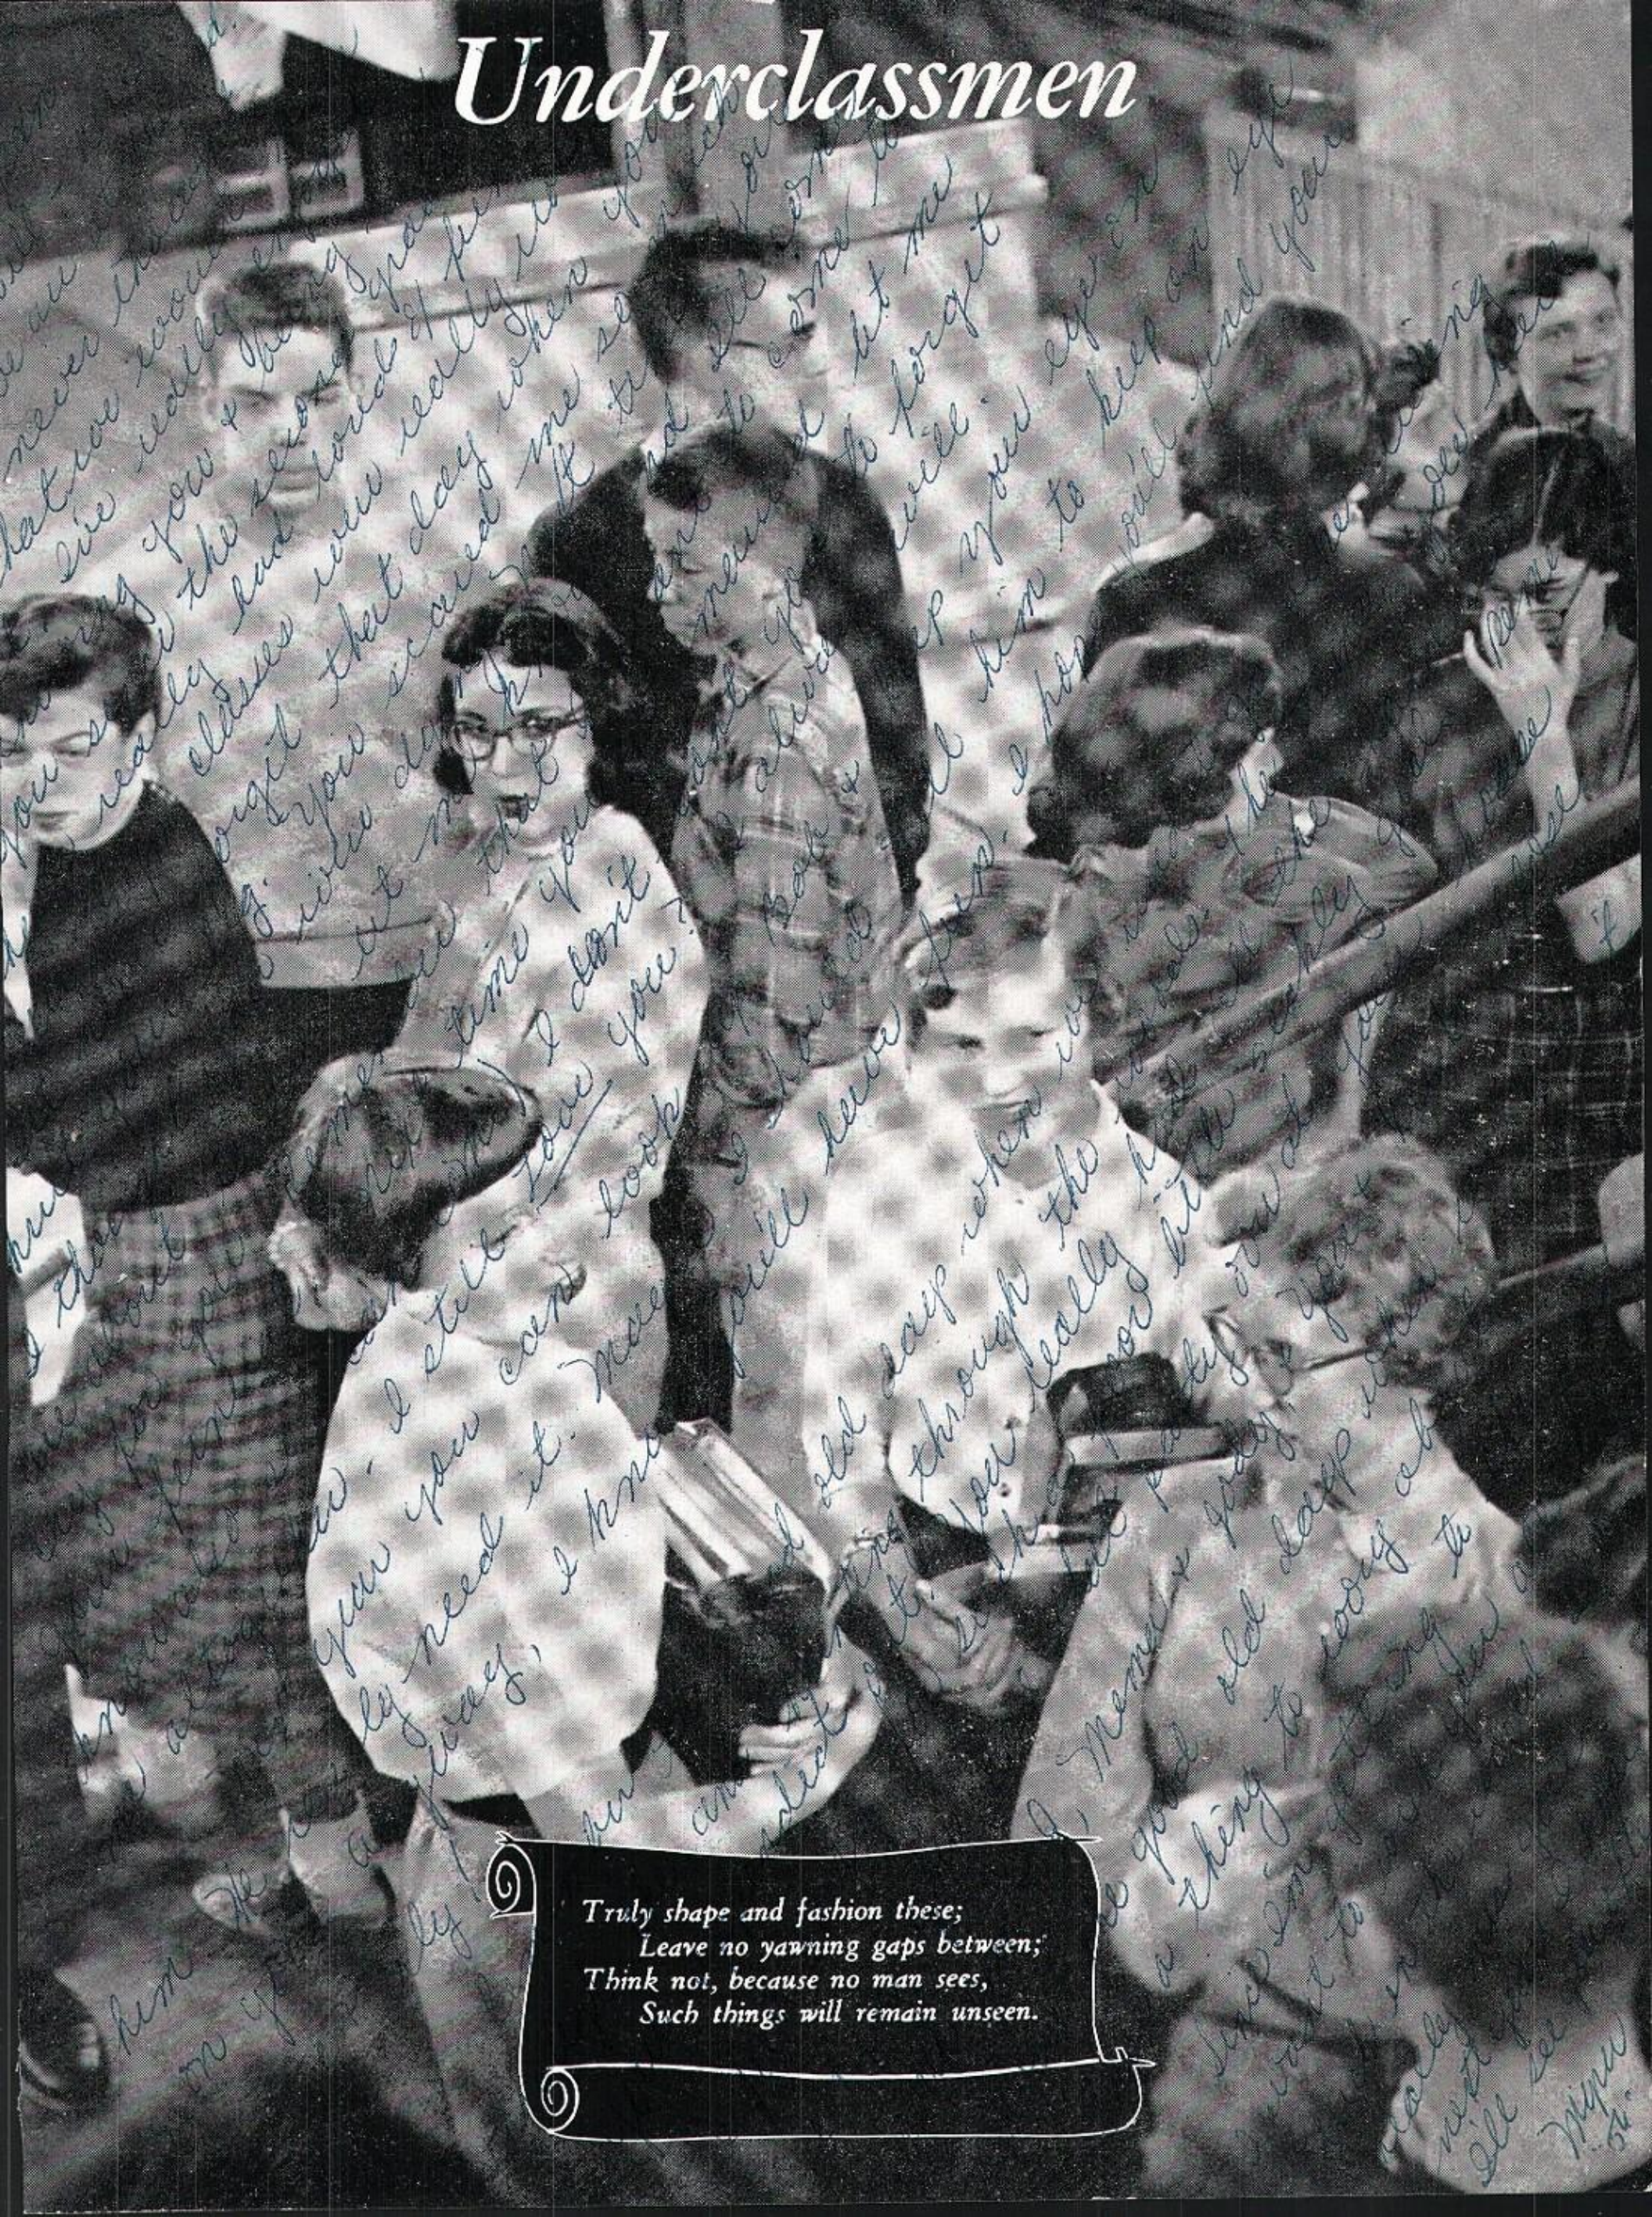
Lower: With victory won, all relax and are content to let the fire do the cheering.

In finishing all I can say is that you're a real swell friend with a wonderful personality. Love and lots of luck and may God bless you.

Sandy

P.S. See you tomorrow

Underclassmen



Truly shape and fashion these;
Leave no yawning gaps between;
Think not, because no man sees,
Such things will remain unseen.

Junior Joists

In the top right hand corner Miss Shirley Maloney and Mr. Richard Becker, advisers, handle the junior class officers with a whistle in hand. Marty Jaxheimer, secretary-treasurer, shows the rest of the class officers, Jim Clauser, chairman of the social council and cheerleader; Chris Stavreti, vice-president; Dave Matthias, social council; Dave Fortune, social council; and Kip Ormerod, president, all members of the basketball team, how the game is played.

In the upper right picture Marty Jaxheimer "best speaker," pronounces Dave Matthias and Janeann Thomas "most handsome boy" and "cutest girl" with an official touch.

In the middle right picture Marvin Smith and Linda Moravec, "class clowns", are giving Gail Baldwin, "the girl who has done the most for the school" and "the girl most likely to succeed," a hard time by scattering books in front center hall.

In the lower right corner John L. Clark and Liz Moore stand in the far corners smiling at being chosen the boy and girl athletes of the class. In between them are John Robinson and Carol Biggs, chosen by their classmates as the most perfect gentleman and lady.

In the lower middle picture industriously cleaning windows are three talented boys: Dwight Flowers, boy most likely to succeed; Jim Clauser, boy who has done the most for the school; and Kip Ormerod, the boy with the best personality.

Finishing the J in the lower left corner are Chris Stavreti and Dot Markoff voted cutest couple in the junior class. They seem to be feeding each other a sweet line.

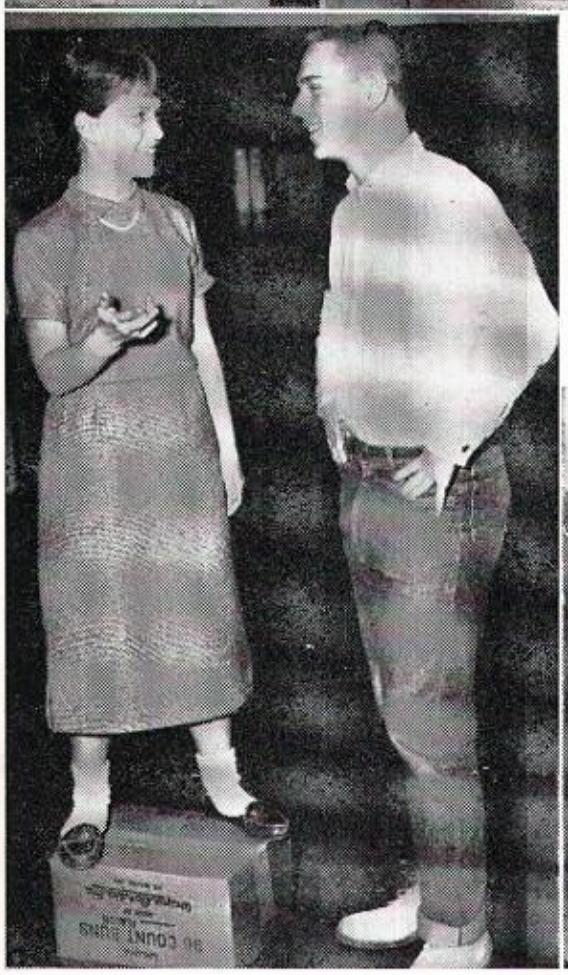
Upper left: A winter wonderland is viewed from the southeast corner of South Side. The biology room can be seen partly hidden by an evergreen.

Lower left: Frances cracks a whip over her service workers. The calendar on the desk tells the girls to keep smiling.

Upper right: Scotty, as he is known to the kids, walks happily down the green halls.

Lower right: Miss Fortney busily conducts an algebra class. The equations on the board seem to be fairly accurate.



Sophomore Structure

Left: Susie Craig, best girl speaker, is giving Dick Miller a soap box lecture on "how to be elected the 'personality kids'." Dick was also voted most handsome boy.

Center: Most likely to succeed are Dick Swager, Nancy Burton, and Molly Somers. Nancy was voted the girl who has done the most for the school.

Middle right: Out of his usual character, John Bennhoff, most perfect gentleman, twists the arm of the best girl athlete, Sharon Waltenburg. Sharon is being saved by the most perfect lady of class, Nancy Arnold.

Lower left: Clowning as always, Harriet Stine and Terry Winebrenner put the finishing touches to sundaes belonging to Bev Rice, best dancer, and Judy Christman, best musician.

Lower right: Sally Chapman and Phil Shriner tied with Betsy Dildine and Danny Howe as the cutest couple. Phil believes in doing things right as he won the titles of best boy dancer, best boy speaker, best boy athlete, and the boy who has done the most for the school. Betsy is voted the cutest girl.

Heaven was never like this. Coach Reichert gets the victory ride after leading our team to the Sectional crown.

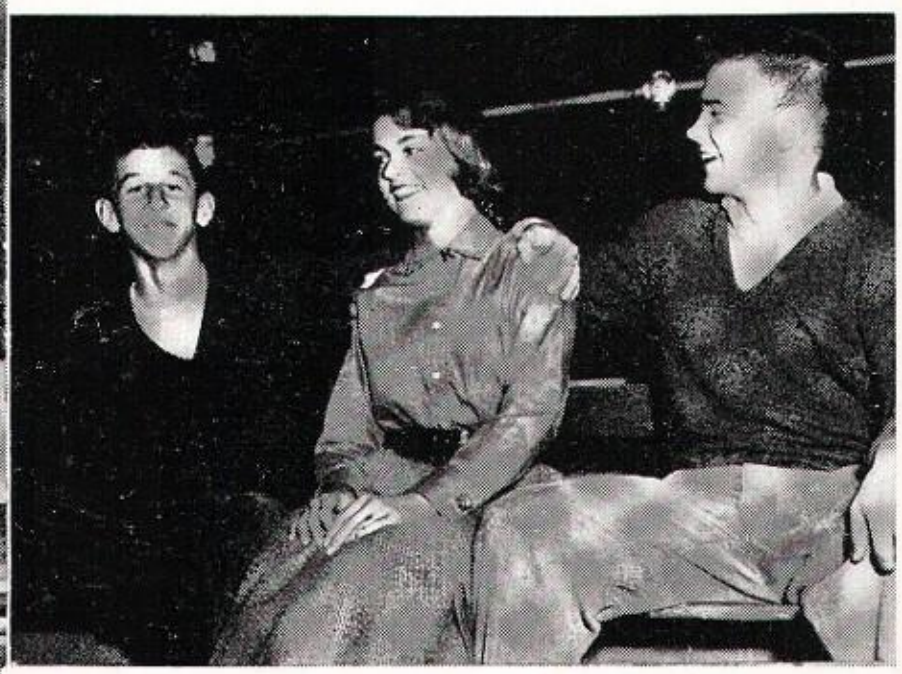
Lower left: Dan Howe, John Lewis, and George Wehrmeister seem to be mighty proud of their teammates while Bill Campbell and Terry Miller rest their bones.

Upper right: "Why all the sadness?" wonders little Laura Craig, our cheerleaders' mascot. Robin Allen breaks down while Jane Korte thinks evil thoughts of the Blueblazers. Tom Baumgartner finds solace in chewing his finger tips.

Lower right: Judd Lowenhar comes to the conclusion that nothing could be worse than losing to Elkhart.

"No! No! Don't shoot!" says Larry Brown, the '59'ers' class clown, as Kathy Schwalm, best girl athlete, pretends she is William Tell.



Freshman Foundation

Building a firm foundation for the future is the class of '59. Pictured here are the outstanding personalities of the Freshman class as chosen by their classmates.

In the upper left, gallant Bob Mann, voted the most perfect gentleman, is trying to rescue Linda Wightman, the most perfect lady of the class, from the "freshman" elevator.

Featured in the middle left is Mike Simmons playing the absent-minded professor while Sharon Ruhl watches. This pair won the titles of the boy and girl most likely to succeed.

Busily swinging paint brushes in the picture at lower left are Judy Novitsky and Mike Gilsdorf, the girl and boy who have done the most for the school.

Ole Olson, who ran away with the titles of cutest boy, best boy dancer, and the best boy athlete, is fighting with Jerry George, boy with the best personality, over the attention of Kay Augspurger, the girl with the best personality and the cutest girl, in the picture at lower right.

Upper left: No spooks, but everybody's hep at the Park Board's Halloween dance held in Room 114.

Middle left: When a buddy meets a body comin' through the lye, the two poles find rubbing elbows almost unbearable; but Wade Altevogt wins the mile at the 1955 sectional track tournament at Northrop Field.

Lower left: The Archers warm up at both ends of the floor at Memorial Coliseum before the Central Catholic game at the Sectional.

Upper right: Tom Pinder leans into another victory at the Central meet in South Side Stadium.

Middle right: Student teachers, Mr. Jerry Kolter, Mr. Donald Owens, and Miss Barbara Huffman, give some serious attention to another lesson plan.

Upper: "What have we here?" Miss Fortney seems to be thinking about one of Alan Severance's trig answers. Phil Black, Alan, Jack Stark, and Russ Oyer seem a bit puzzled by it all.

Center: This procedure goes on every Tuesday morning, as Mr. Furst's pupils take care of the banking. In this picture, Joan Hollman and Delores Stem are handling the money, while Luba Gouloff and Barb Kortum are checking the tapes to make sure the amounts prove.

Lower: Mr. Becker's homeroom students are taking aptitude tests and look a little worried about what to write for answers. Mr. Becker's homeroom is composed of Freshman B's.

Upper: "Catch those errors, kids" is the familiar cry of Miss Harvey to her Journalism classes, when proofreading days arrive. Sandra Bell and Betsy Masel must be brushing up on a few rules and principles concerning proofreading. The other members of the class are quite engrossed in study, also.

Center: Canning and freezing can be fun, especially if one knows how to do it, as these girls are learning in Home Economics.

Lower center: Everyone gets into the act in this picture. "Hos", as he is called by his Concert Choir class, directs the Choir during the fifth period in a variety of songs.

Lower: Sentence structure seems to be the problem of these English students of Mr. Marvey Knigge. Analyzing sentences is only one of the many fundamentals studied in this English class.

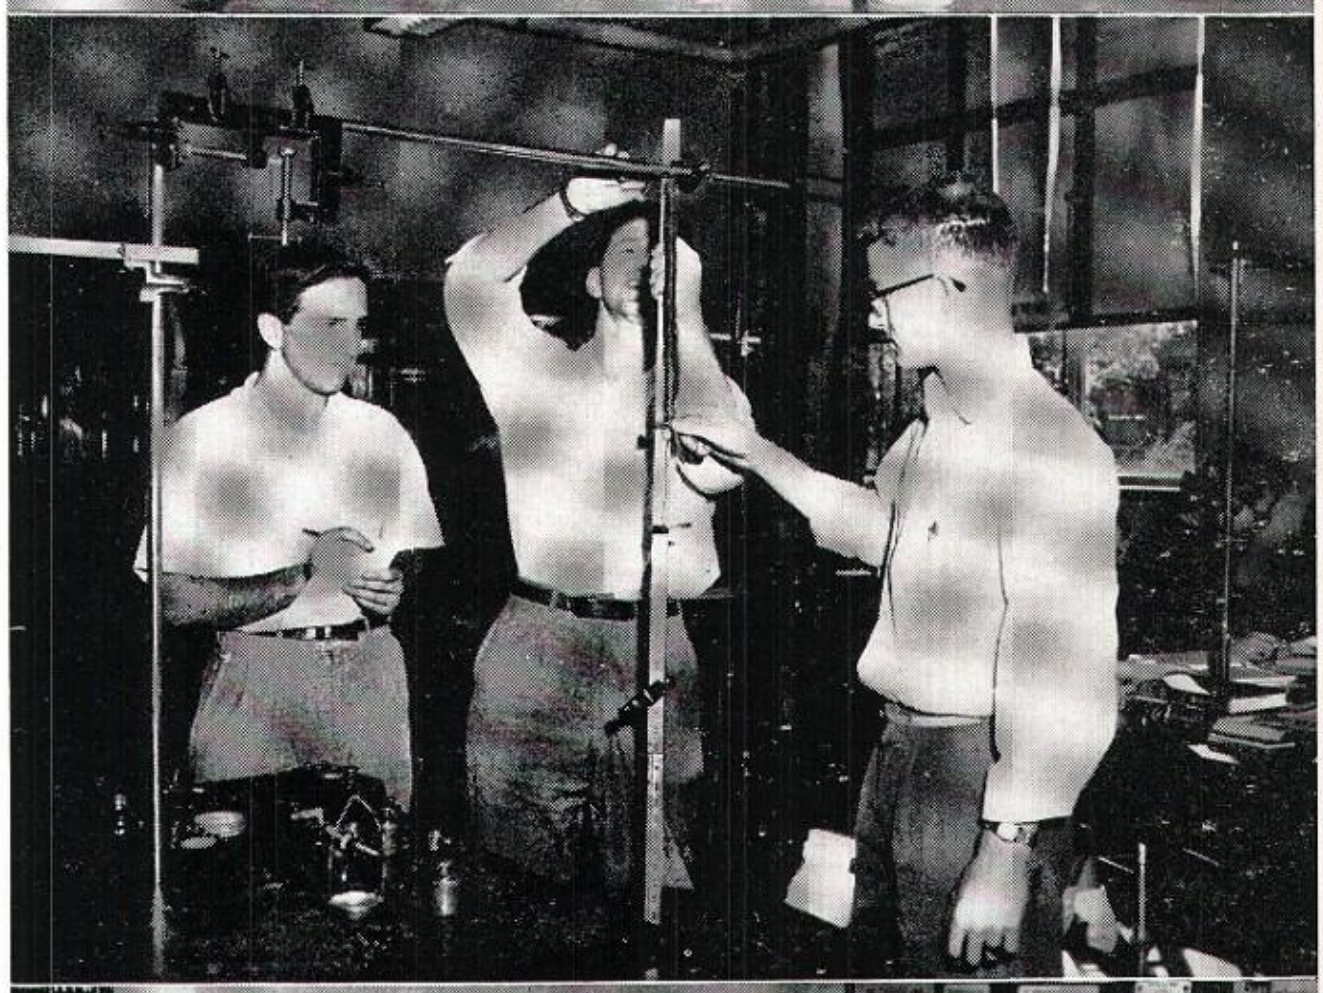
Upper: Mrs. Alice Keegan's gym class is learning the fundamentals of speedball, and having quite a time in doing so.



Center: Dennis Fuller, Bob Karlsberg, and Jack Wickliffe take some measurements for physics in Mr. Schlenker's class.

Lower: Well, this class certainly seems to be enjoying something amusing. Perhaps, it could be one of Mr. Wilson's witty remarks. This is the Government 2 class, composed of seniors, who give Mr. Wilson a really rough time.

Upper left: "Come and get it," yells Mrs. Luse to the rest of the faculty at their picnic. Mr. Schlenker and Mrs. Kaasa help serve Mr. Hostetler, Frances, Mrs. Welty, and Miss Fortney.

Lower left: Judy Denig gives a big smile of approval as does "Hos" when Janeann Thomas hits a perfect note.

Upper right: "Mind your manners, ladies," Miss Mellen seems to be saying to Mrs. Luse, Miss Hickman, Mrs. Kaasa, Miss Peck, Miss Mary Crowe, and Miss Leif.

Lower right: Mr. Everett Havens checks his mailbox during his free period. What, no stack of fan mail today, Mr. Havens?

Upper left: Caught in the act is our own Miss Van Gorder, who appears to be aiding her service workers in a game of checkers. The service workers, Pamela Manth, Sally Branning, Jane Felger, and Keitha Punsky, don't seem to mind her kibitizing.

Upper right: Everyone looks glum at the faculty breakfast because of Mr. Robert Gernand's departure, little knowing he would return to the "Halls of Ivy" in another year. Shown in the picture are Mr. McClain, Miss Van Gorder, Mr. Gernand, Mr. Snider, Miss Hickman, Mr. Davis, Mrs. Betty Miller, and Mr. Motz.

Middle right: So-Si-Y'ers entertain teachers as their guests at the club's tea.

Lower right: Mr. Snider discusses the Freedoms Foundation exhibit, last fall in Room 114, with Mr. McMahan, Superintendent Aaron T. Lindley, and Mayor Robert Meyers.

Upper right: Nancy Hill appears to be outnumbered by the stronger sex in Miss Fortney's Algebra 4 class. Isn't that what makes life interesting, Nancy?

Middle right: An example of youth at South Side—always busy! Miss Miller occupies her students with one of her well-known Friday quizzes.

Lower right: Speed and accuracy are the two fundamentals stressed in Miss Covalt's typing classes.

Totem Tells All in '56 Edition

South Side's Totem again offers a new volume, Number 34, to the Archer public. Past success has been applauded by the Medalist Award of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Faithful in the construction of this record of the 1955-56 school year are Bill Gilsdorf and Phila Hurter, co-editors; Lynn Neuenschwander, senior class editor; Sharon Stallings, junior class editor; Mary Brunskill, sophomore class editor; Sharon Myers, freshman class editor; Sharon Mallough, club editor; Barbara Kortum, faculty editor;

Becky Brinkroeger, girls sports editor; Terry Miller, boys sports editor; Jack Ford, Intramural; Mary Ann Wilkens, copy editor; Marcia Schultz and Marilyn Tennant, co-copy editors; Gloria Johns and Heather Schreffler, first semester co-circulation managers; Sharon Myers and Ginny Pugh, second semester co-circulation managers; Sally Branning and Nancy Dildine, publicity managers; Duane Bobeck, Tom Perkins, Larry Reeves, and Mike Gilsdorf, photographers; Diane Roe, Lydia Martindale, Barbara Bowyer, Annette Voorhees, Ginny Pugh, and Flo Markoff, office managers; Bill Davis, cartoonist.

Miss Harvey points out a bit of humor for Heather Schreffler, Gloria Johns, Sharon Myers, and Ginny Pugh, circulation managers, who set a new circulation record this year.

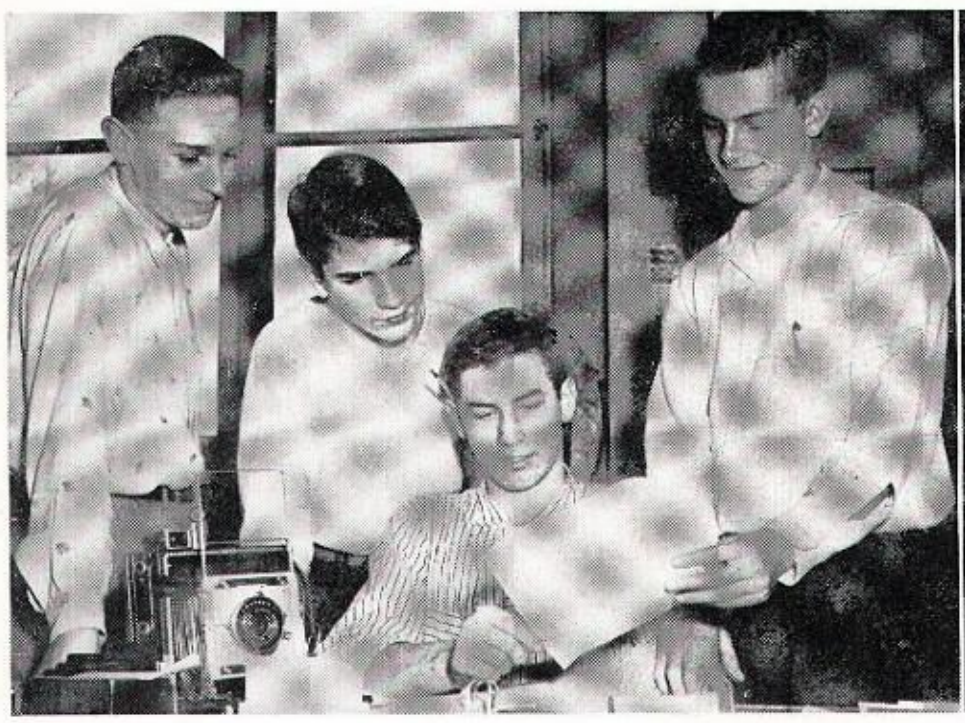
Upper right: Soaking up the sun are Barb Bowyer, Lydia Martindale, Ginny Pugh, and Diane Roe.

Middle right: Lynn Neuenschwander, Sharon Stallings, Pudgy Brunskill, and Sharon Myers enjoy the fresh air.

Bottom right: Sally Branning and Nancy Dildine do a publicity stunt. Larry Reeves and Tom Perkins go along for the ride.

The winning combination for the successful Times—Mary Ann Wilkens and Gail Baldwin, the two general managers this year, lay out a paper and Miss Harvey does a little kibitzing. "Pipe" that St. Valentine's Day corsage.



Our Newspaper

Larry Reeves and Mike Gilsdorf look on while head photographers, Tom Perkins and Duane Bobeck, inspect a print.

Karen Sonday helps out the copy editors, Lois Root and Rita Von Gunten.

Each Thursday the students around South Side wait for the homeroom agent to deal out the weekly Archer news. Miss Harvey knows the makings of a good newspaper, and the students around South Side realize they've got the best newspaper in the United States. The prizes for the labors of the superb staff were the Medalist Rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the Quill and Scroll International Honor Rating and the George H. Gallup Award, the highest awards possible.

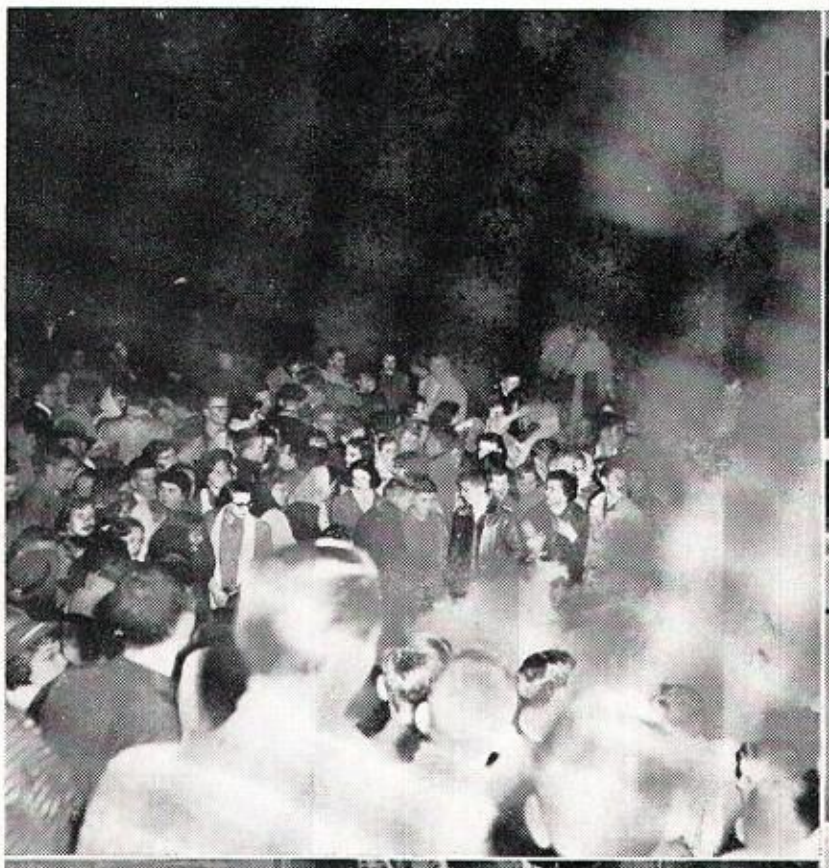
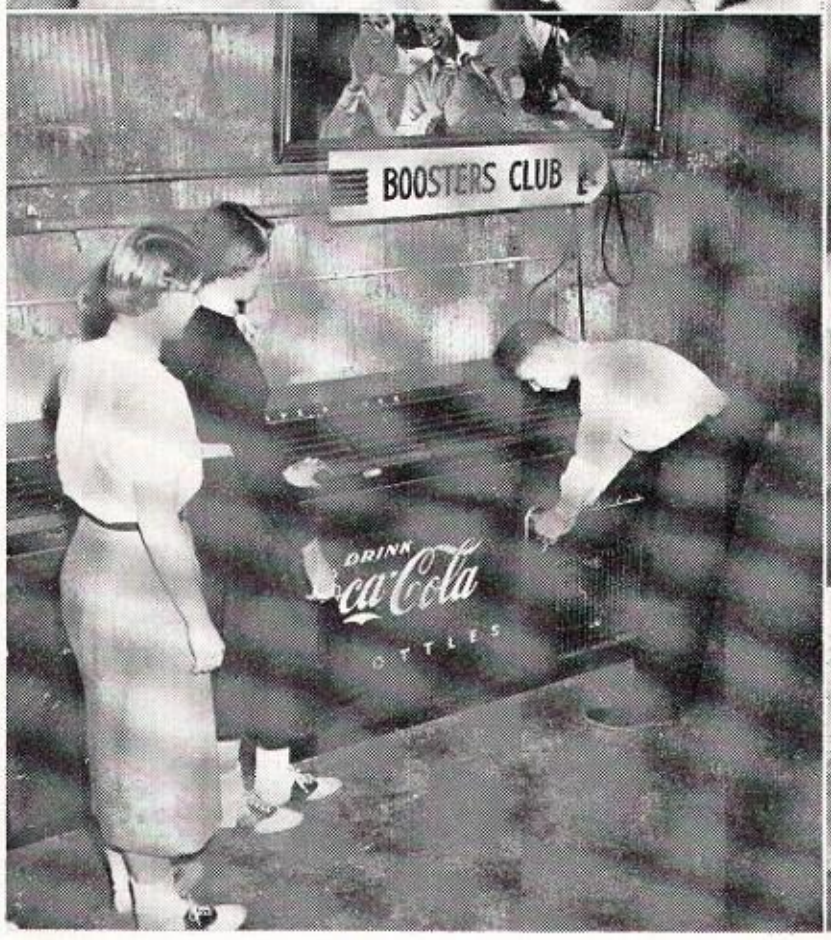
Middle right: Carolyn Beardsley, spring semester advertising manager; Ginny Shopoff, circulation manager spring semester; and Nancy Burton, advertising manager fall semester and news editor part of spring semester, look happy over business prospects.

Lower right: Nancy Arnold, Marcia Steere, and Joan Simmons, feature editors, dig up some ideas.





Concessioners

The faithful Boosters serve the hungry sports fans and help support many worthy activities around South Side.

Upper left: A booming bonfire celebrates the victorious Archers' tournament season.

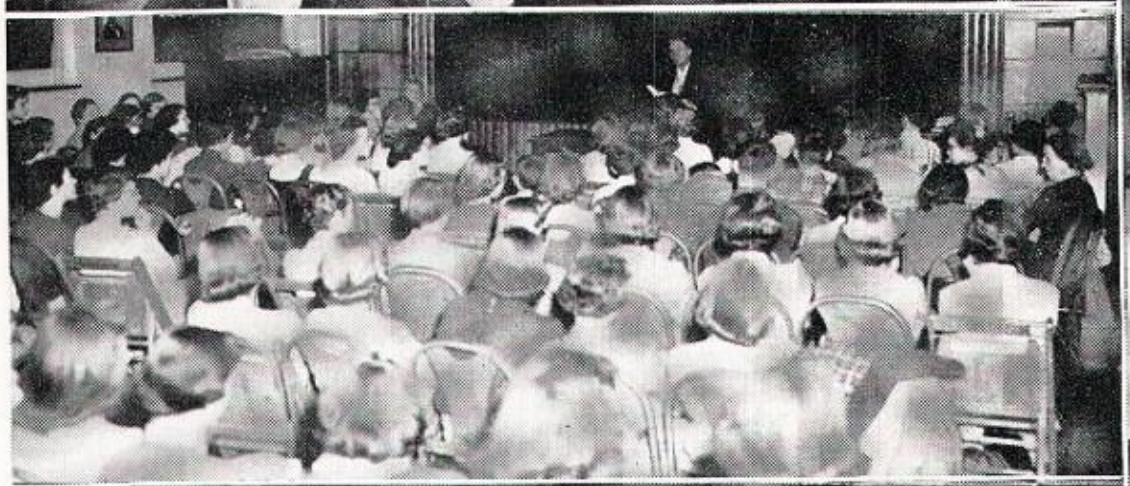
Lower left: Liz Moore, Ilze Cielens, and Foster McNeal cater to the calls for Cokes.

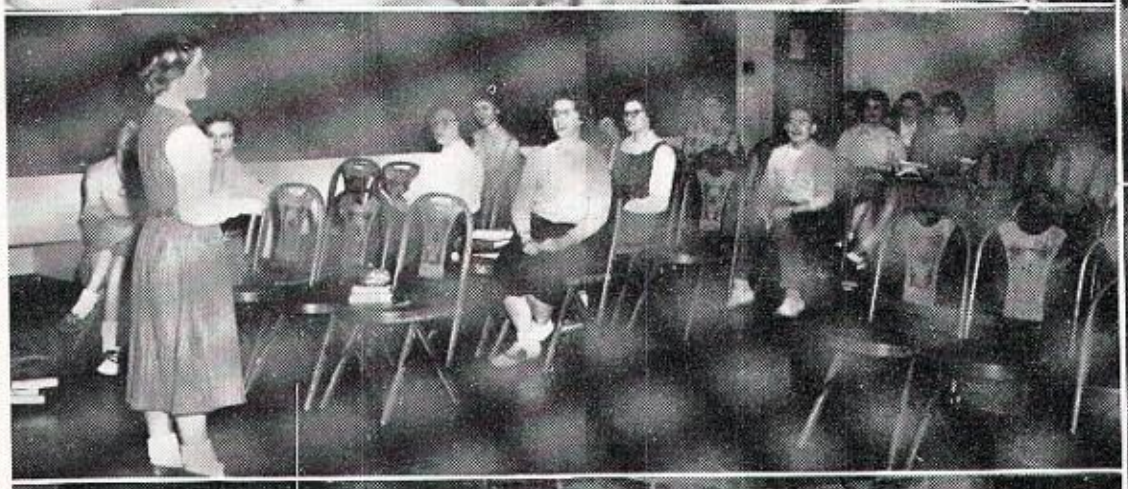
Publishers

Busy Times workers go in for many journalistic accomplishments as they strive to become members of the 1500 Club.

Upper right: Nancy Arnold and Gail Baldwin gaze over piles of money. Counting the Times income can be exhausting.

Lower right: "Faster," says Ginny Pugh to Gloria Johns and Nancy Showalter. "The Times must go through," exclaims the efficient Ginny.





HEAD ORATORS

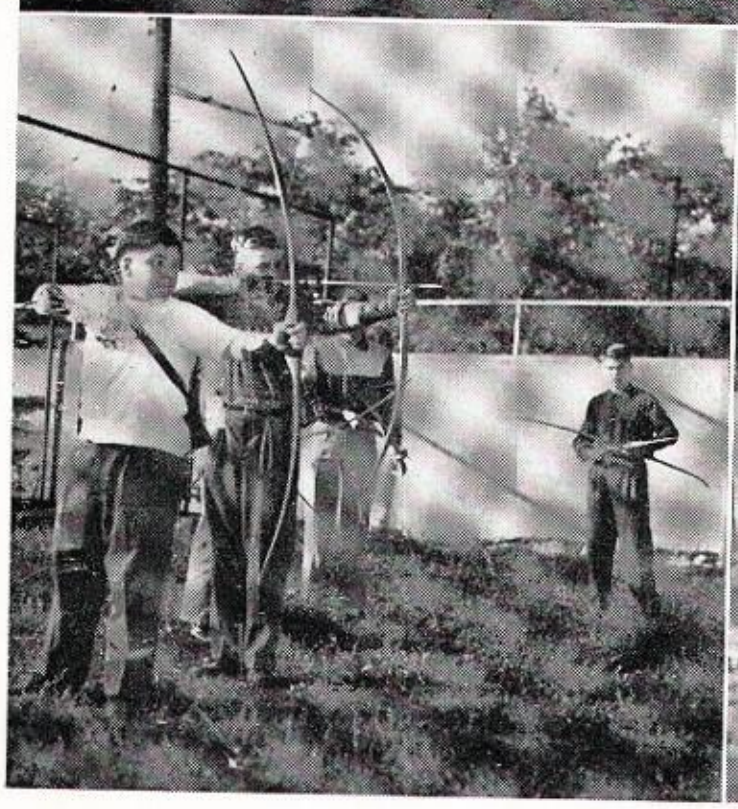
HEAD DRAMATISTS

Upper right: "Oh, the pain of it," shrieks Jackie Peniston. Pity engulfs Klem Lebamoff and Nelson Neiman as they practice for a Wranglers' play.

Middle right: Susie Craig, Barb Bowyer, and Paula McConnell discuss plans for a Wranglers' meeting.

Lower right: Nancy Ryan, Martha Reiff, Nancy Jones, Margaret Rogers, and Lynn Gall present a play in the Freshman Talent Show for 36 Workshop.



The Mighty Archers

"The archer warrior is a mighty, skillful man" and he gets better every day with the help of William Applegate, who demonstrates the finer points of archery.

Upper left: Mr. William Applegate instructs John Shanahan, Carl Schafer, Don Brittson, and Peter Rothberg in the art of removing arrows. Note how the bullseye shows wear and tear.

Lower left: Jim Wyatt, Don Brittsan, and Peter Rothberg shoot for "bull's eyes" while Carl Schafer waits his turn on the range in the stadium.

Men of Letters

A Christmas spirit was aroused in the South Side students, who made an all-time-high collection of canned goods for the needy. The sportsmen, with the help of Mr. Ora Davis, had a number of other projects including a dance.

Upper right: Tom Pinder shovels South Side soil for a flower bed with Mr. Ora Davis calling instructions.

Daniel Boones

In the school range the Boys' Rifle Club fires away under the direction of Mr. Thomas Polite, who teaches them the care and the use of rifles and the rules of safety.

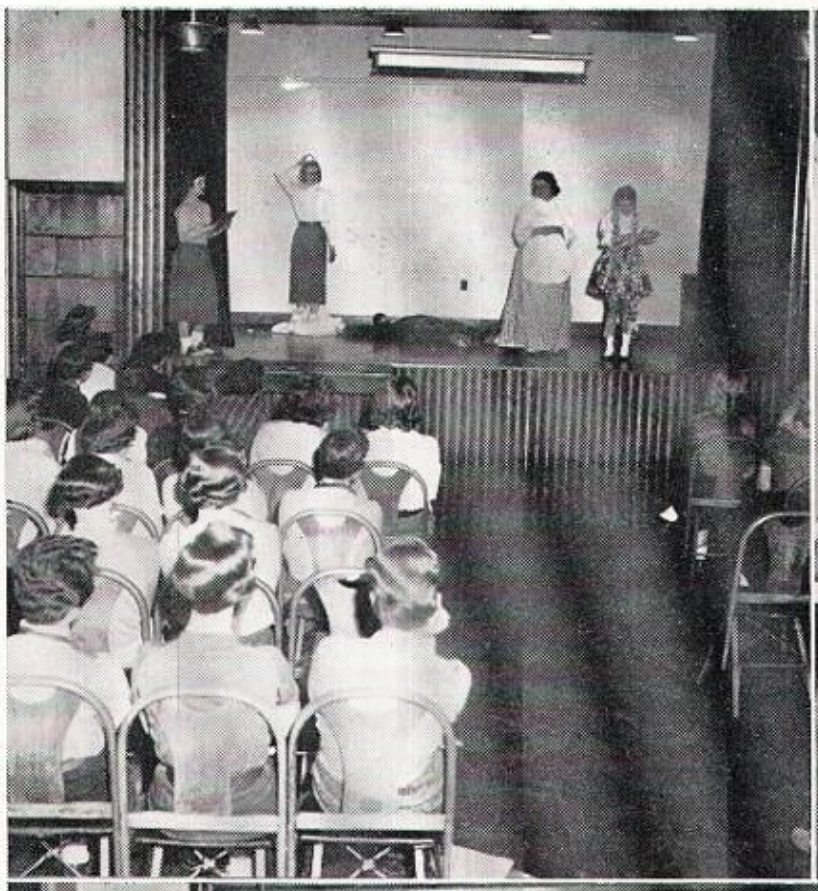
Annie Oakleys

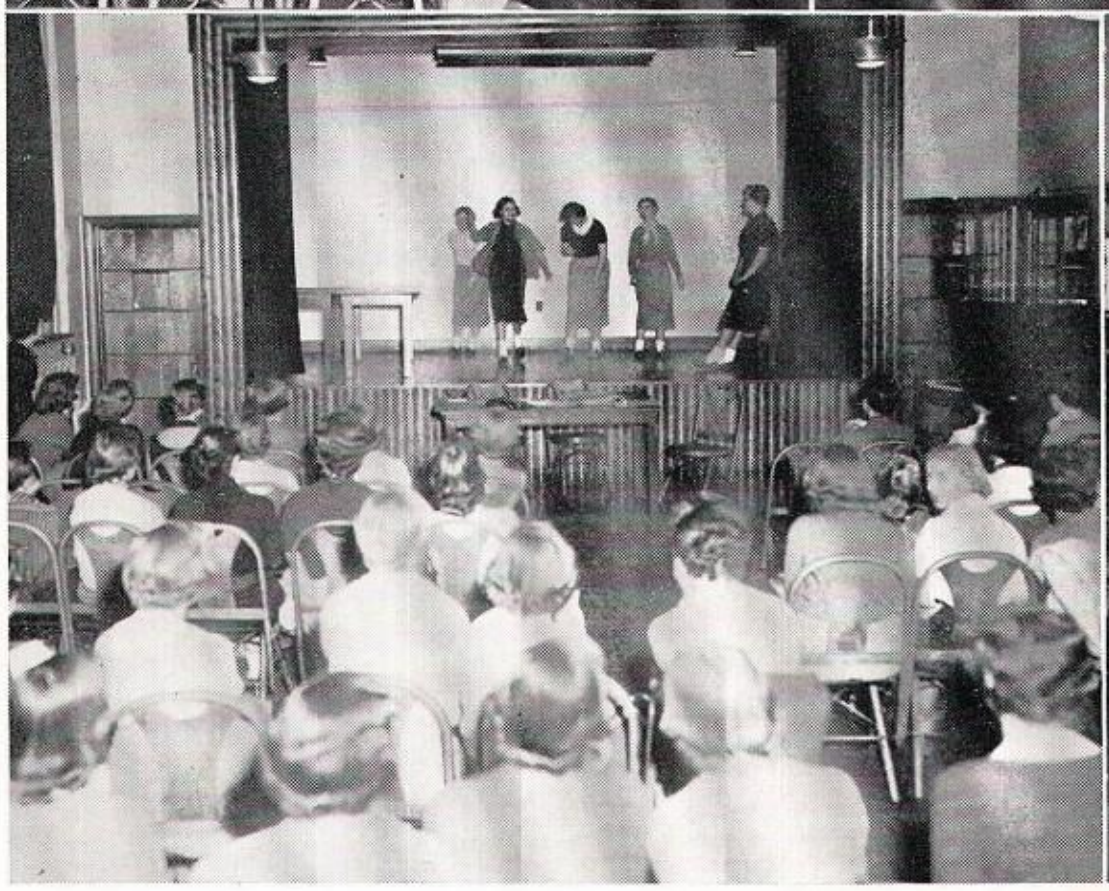
With Mrs. Mildred Luse and Mrs. Bette Miller as leaders, the Archer lasses have quickly learned the fundamentals of the sport in the true spirit of Annie Oakley.

Top right: Barbara Bowes, Sue Morganthaler, Judy Larko, and Marge Laycock fire from a difficult position.

Middle right: Joyce Flaugh, Dawn Stevens, June Flaugh, Pat Arnold, Bonnie Neuenschwander, and Judy Graef learn the parts of a rifle.

Lower right: Martha Richter, Marge Laycock, and Sue Morganthaler watch Judy Larko and Barbara Bowes practice.





English Experts

The Philolethians found themselves well occupied with exciting events this year. Setting off the literary club's calendar was a rough initiation picnic. Book reviews, a play, and a joint meeting with the little sister club, Meterites, were held. Mrs. Evlyn Spray is adviser.

Upper left: Diana Goodin, Diane Roe, Nancy Arnold, and Roberta Buck display their acting talent.

Upper right: Philos Barb Solaro, Sharon Stallings, Judy Christman, Jane Felger, and Judy Gregg administer judgment on Meterites' short stories by Marcia Steere, Sharon Ruhl, Diane Reiff, Alice Weddle, Dinah Goodin, Mary Esther Hopkins, Janet Gareiss, Cheryl Habecker, Janet McClain, and Marijo Edwards.

Junior Literary

The Meterite girls, the younger replica of the Philolethians, strive each year to improve their literary abilities. Throughout the year, book reports, poetry readings, and plays serve to represent the talent of each member. Miss Susen Peck is their adviser.

Lower left: Pat Forehand, Mary Kay Hall, Sandra Brateman, Patsy Neaderhouser, and Judy Anderson prove they can take initiation.

Lower right: All eyes look to Pam Manth as she begins her story. Sally Chapman, Judy Clark, Barbara Salaka, and Nancy Reim are the onlookers.

Inspired by YW

Many junior and senior girls delight in the friendly atmosphere always present at the meetings of So-Si-Y. The members primarily spend their time on worth-while projects around South Side. Miss Rose Mary DeLancey and Miss Olive Perkins sponsor the club.

Upper left: Nancy Reim, Barb Stanbery, Sally Enking, Miss Hickman, and Mrs. Davis fill up at their picnic last spring.

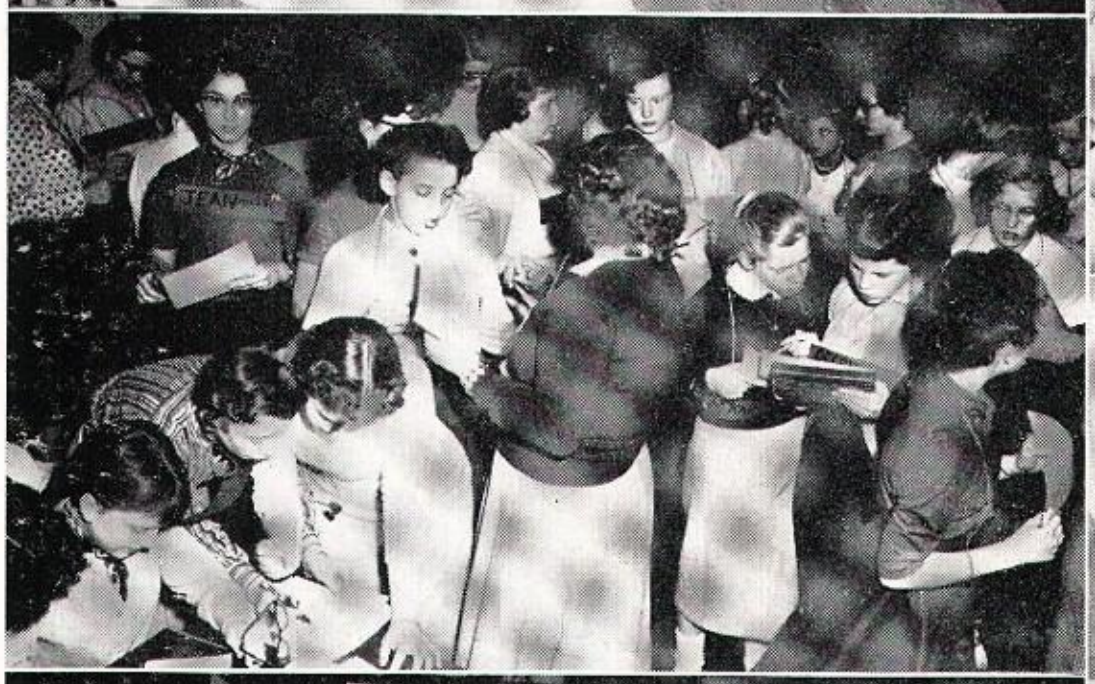
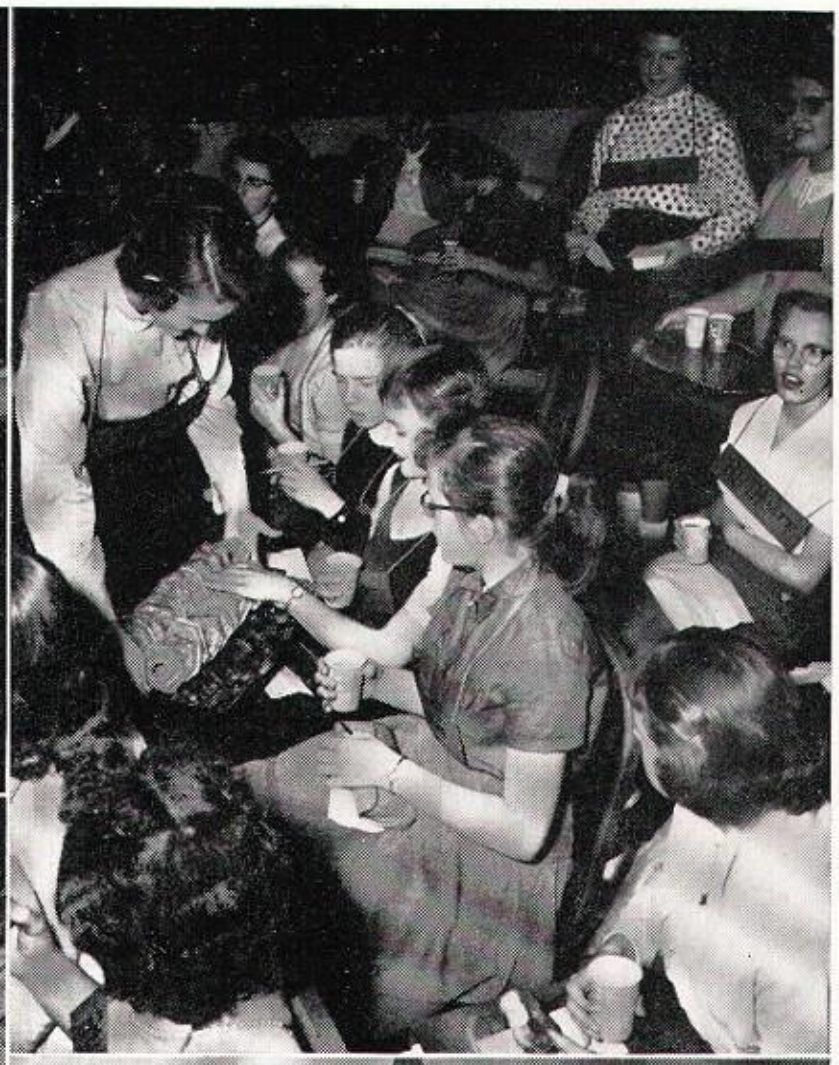
Boys Only

Hi-Y sponsored a Queen of Hearts dance which really impressed South Side students with the cooperation shown. Mr. Robert Weber sees that his boys have a fine background of Christian ideas.

Upper right: Dean Dauscher, Morrie Sanderson, Becky Brinkroeger, Robert Weber, and Tom Baumgartner slave away on the school directory.

Lower right: Herb Stuelpe, Dave Eitman, George McClain, Morrie Sanderson, Orville Byers, Chuck Stanbery, Mrs. Davis, Sally Enking, and Barb Stanbery help themselves at the Hi-Y picnic last spring.





USA

USA, another popular club for girls, stresses the importance of friendliness and service among its members. The club is directed by Miss Mabel Fortney and Miss Olive Perkins.

Upper left: Mary Watson dreams on while Jane Dill, Joyce Watson, Phyllis Springer, and Virginia Tsiguloff prepare refreshments after a meeting.

Middle left: The girls scurry around trying to get answers for their quiz game at a meeting.

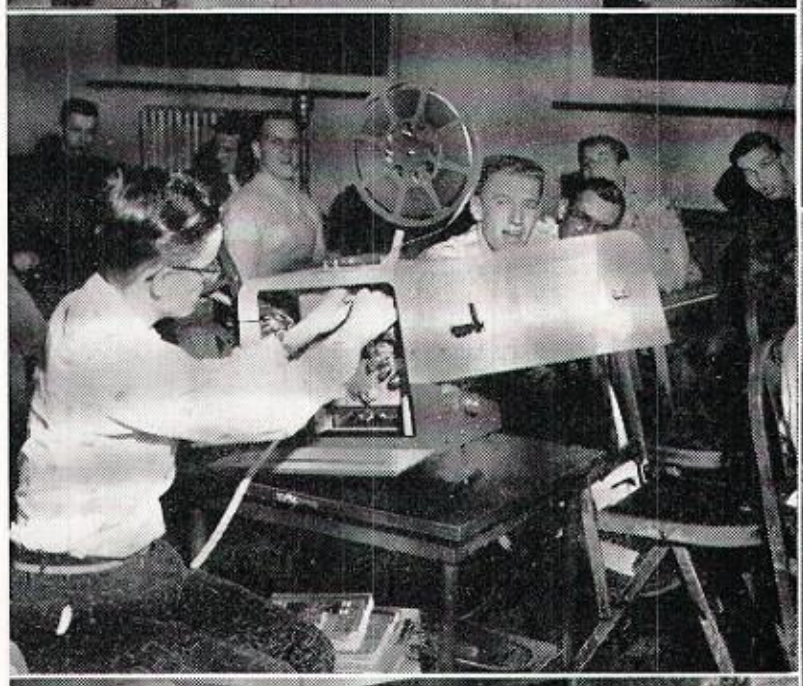
Lower left: A casual group with Doris Howard, Kathryn Osborne, and Barbara Griffith ponder over a club problem.

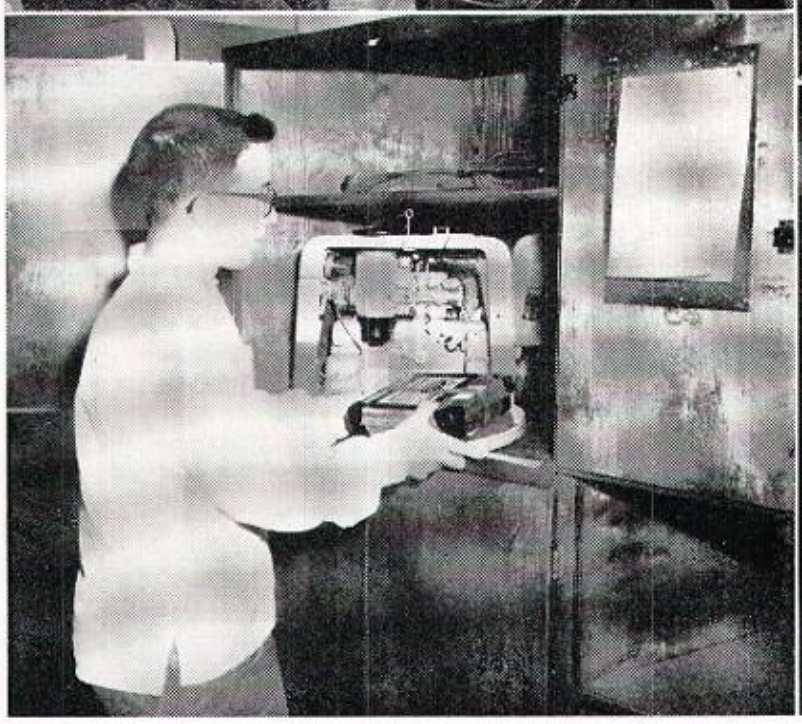
Vesta

The goddess of home and hearth lingers over the club of her namesake, as the girls receive the guidance of Mrs. Gordon Kaasa. The members learn that homemaking is both fun and rewarding.

Upper right: "Not over eight now," pleads Joann Perry while serving doughnuts at a club party.

Lower right: "It's no fair peeking, girls," insists the bystanders as the members indulge in a little fun.





Movie Machinists

Everyone loves a movie whether there's popcorn or not. Mr. Ernest Walker and the boys keep the projectors in tip-top shape and do a good job running the films for classes.

Artists and Models

Each year the members of South Side's artistic association strive to demonstrate the possibilities of art in every-day life. The members receive excellent guidance from Mrs. Ruth Fleck, the club sponsor.

Upper right: June Flaugh is sketched by Carl Pliett, Larry Mundt, Patsy Neaderhouser, Julie Favorite, and Jack Vesey.

Middle right: Bonnie Rayl, Ron Mumma, and Carol Barber produce their own drama with self-made puppets.

Lower right: Prof. Forrest Starke, teacher at the Fort Wayne Art School, does a portrait of Lynn Davies at a club meeting.

Civic Minded

Members of Know-Your-City really have the facts and figures concerning Fort Wayne as a result of Mr. Jack Weicker, who enjoys helping them.

Upper left: Beatrice Altevogt gives some pointers on where and what to see in our city.

Public Spirited

Better understanding of Fort Wayne's government results from the Social Science Club, rather recently established at South Side by Mr. Wilburn Wilson.

Upper right: Nancy Carter dips the punch for hungry waiters, Sandy Brateman, Victor Stelmashenko, Janet Adler, Beatrice Altevogt, Marjean Benton, and Anita Ashton.

Bottom right: A group of students study an intricate map of our city.

Helping Hands

Aid is furnished to the faculty by the Service Club volunteers.

Upper left: "Yes dear, it's been a terrible day at the office." That's Mr. Ora Davis, head of the Service Club, speaking to his wife. Mary Johns and Ginny Waterfield do chores.

Lower left: Barbara Bugg presents Service Club award, the Randolph Jacobs trophy, to deserving Mary Ann Wilkens at the annual Service Club dinner.

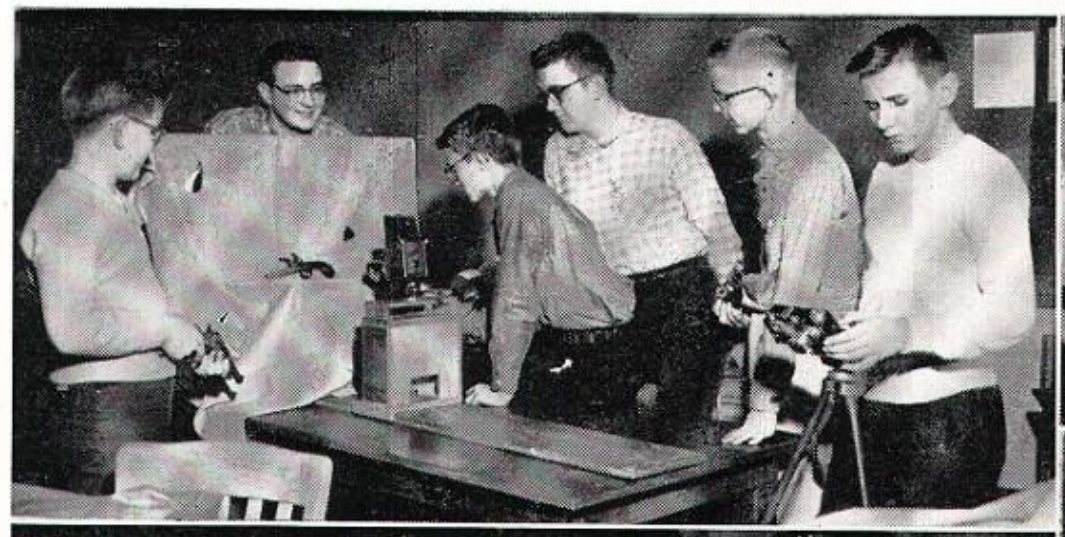
Bookworms

Efficiency was the keyword for the Library Club this year. Miss Willodeen Price and the club members kept the shelves stocked and in order.

Upper right: Cheerful Barbara Bowyer, Judy Larko, Ginny Whitmer, Barbara Stanbery, Nancy Dildine, and Sharon Mallough do service work for Mrs. Miller in Study Hall. Aid is furnished to the faculty by the Service Club volunteers.

Middle right: The scene of "solitude" and study—the library.

Lower right: Not another fine! Bankruptcy sets in for Neil Diver. Sondra Risinger deals the blow.



Camera Bugs

Well-aimed shots clicked right along throughout the year in Camera Club. Camera addicts soaked up the advice of Mr. Richard Becker, who is an expert with the camera.

Middle left: "This is the way to set it up," says Mr. Becker to Mike Scott, Ronnie Helms, David Seaman, and Larry Vanice.

Mathematic Geniuses

Scientific knowledge dug more roots in the already well-stocked minds of Math-Science followers. Mr. Lloyd Whelan, Mrs. Mildred Luse, and Mr. Paul Sidell lend their assistance to this club.

Upper right: Everyone except Liz Moore gazes intently at the speaker at a Math-Sci meeting.

Middle right: Dave Eitman scribbles notations, evidently impressing Ginny Pugh and Deanne Wissner. Nancy Hill swallowed an ice cube.

Pep Rousers

The spontaneous combustion concluding each Archer play is kept alive and booming by our ever-popular cheerleaders. Each one has done a splendid job as has their director, Mr. Robert Becker; and their pep and spirit have proved infectous throughout the student body.

Our spritely cheerleaders, in addition to rousing the spectator spirit, also lent a helping hand to charity. Many children, crippled by polio, were benefited by the money given through the March of Dimes. The cheerleaders did the favorite school yells in front of Murphy's, in order to raise the much-needed money.

Upper left: Luba Gouloff, John Hendrickson, Nancy Showalter, Jim Clauser, and Becky Brinkroeger.

Noontime In Spring

Never let it be said that the Choir took their singing "sitting down." This year was one of the greatest ever, according to Mr. Lester Hostetler.

The important events included singing for numerous churches, the Faculty Christmas Party, Winter Musical, Eastern Star, Kiwanis Club, PTA Study Groups, Music Assemblies, Scottish Rite, Open House, Teachers' Convention, PTA Teas, Chile Supper, Fort Wayne Transportation Club, Junior Banquet, Masonic Temple, Thanksgiving Assembly, Christmas Assembly, Easter Assembly, Senior Banquet and Reception, Principals' and Supervisors' Club, Dana Corporation dinner, Holy Week Service, WKJG-TV, Chatterbox at Van Orman, International Council for Exceptional Children, Quarter Century Banquet, National Honor Society, Spring Musical, Ivy Day, and Commencement.

SPECIAL GROUPS

Mr. Hostetler commands several smaller segments of Choir—Madrigal Choir is a specialty group which entertain at many functions. They sang at the Hobby Ranch House for a Dana Corporation dinner. Throughout the year they enlivened many church and Women's Club meetings. The Girls Quartet is a lively singing group consisting of Lydia Martindale, Diane Roe, Merna Mosel, and Janet VonGunten. South Side students really enjoyed the combination of the Boy's and Girl's quartet in the Talent Show. Joe Winder, Jim Clauser, Ned Byrer, and Paul Campbell claim themselves as members of the Boy's Quartet. Since some of the choir members are midget in size, a Baby Quartet was formed, containing Claudia Holmes, Lydia Martindale, Paul Campbell, and Don Ayres.

Music Masters

ORCHESTRA

A sleepy morning in the gym and what could be more soul-satisfying than to wake from slumber to the strains of a melody, as South Side's students do on special music assembly days. Our orchestra really makes life a little sweeter on such mornings.

The orchestra helped present the fifth annual concert at Plymouth Congregational Church in cooperation with the Plymouth choir. According to the members of orchestra, the event was a huge success.

Lately, it has been quite evident that the orchestra has made noble strides in gaining a number of talented musicians. When Mr. Robert Drummond first entered the band room in 1947 he found only nine strings. Today there are 44 string players. With the loss of only two seniors and the addition of younger musicians, the string section will maintain its quota.

Favorite musical arrangements among the orchestra members were Oklahoma, Finion's Rainbow, Haydn's Symphony No. 7 and Tchaikowsky's Symphony No. 5.

BAND

Noise, the keynote in any sports spectacle, relies on the support of Mr. Robert Drummond's band. There's something about our South Side band that always moves hands to clapping and voices to yelling for the home team.

This year the band held 104 members and also maintained an ever-improving general band. The woodwind ensemble contained the usual select group of recorder musicians, Judy Cook, Marcia Downhour, Sue Berlien, Judy Christman, Sharon Sprunger, and Gail Baldwin.

The grey-and-greenclad band spent a busy season. A benefit game complete with droodles really went over with the spectators. England's Scot's Guards enticed band members to go enmasse to the Coliseum for a closer look, even at the expense of missing the Bluffton game. The Memorial and Armistice Day parades were also graced with South Side's band.

Athletics

Nothing useless is, or low;
Each thing in its place is best;
And what seems but idle show
Strengthens and supports the rest.

Scotty . . . Continues to Build Athletes

Completing another successful year as athletic director is Mr. Wayne Scott. "Scotty," as he is called by all who know him, has a big job to do in this capacity, and he handles it always in his efficient, congenial manner. He's a wonderful fellow and a great friend of all who have met him or worked with him here at South Side.

Behind the Scenes

Deserving a lot of credit for the success of the athletic program are the student managers. These boys work behind the scenes, doing innumerable jobs that ease those of the coaches. It is hard to imagine athletics without the presence of student managers. Here they are grouped around a laundry cart into which soiled clothing is being tossed. It will be taken to the athletic laundry and put through the machines. Clean again, it will be re-issued to the players.

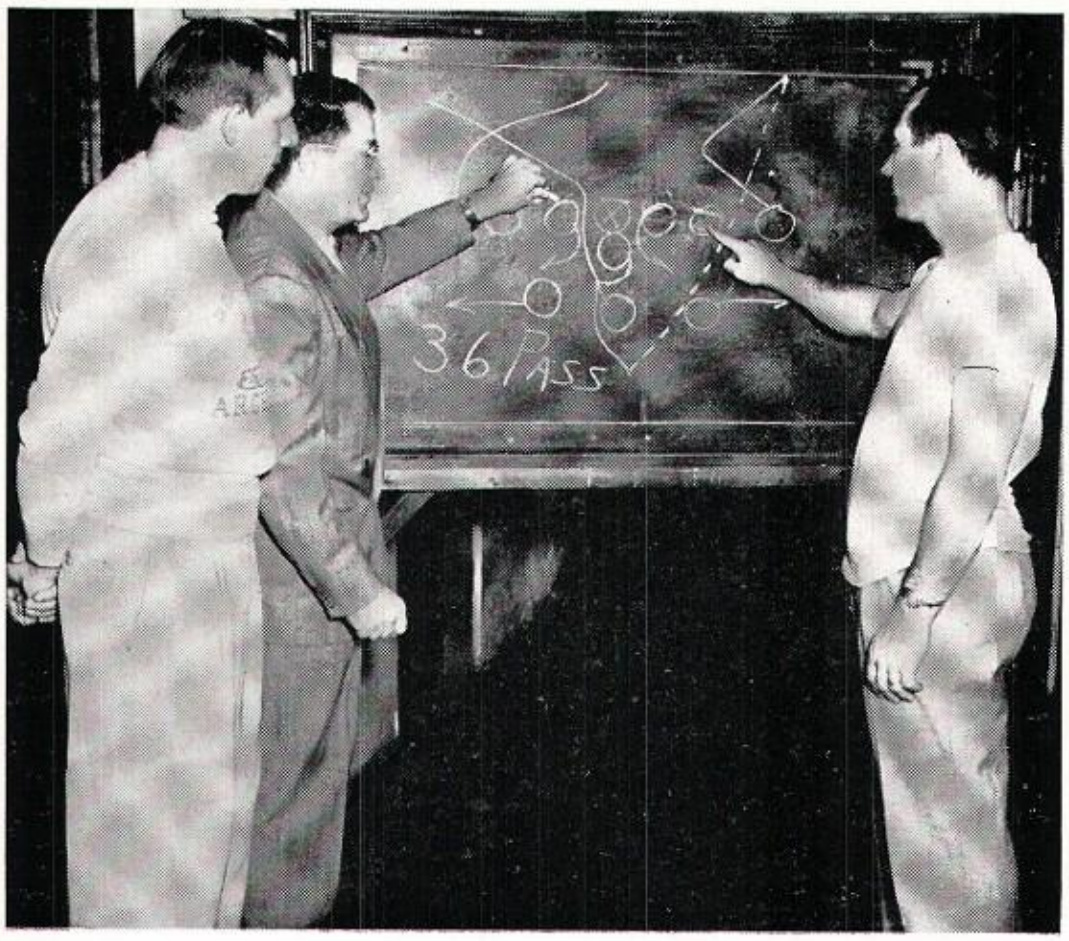
Archers Experience Winless Season

As comes to all teams in the cycle of athletics, South Side's football squad met with an extreme slump, losing all eight games. The fellows gave it all they had; but lack of experience, weight, and depth were all factors that contributed to the losing year. The boys had spirit and fight right down to the end and deserve credit for their continued determination in the face of defeat.



The Outcome

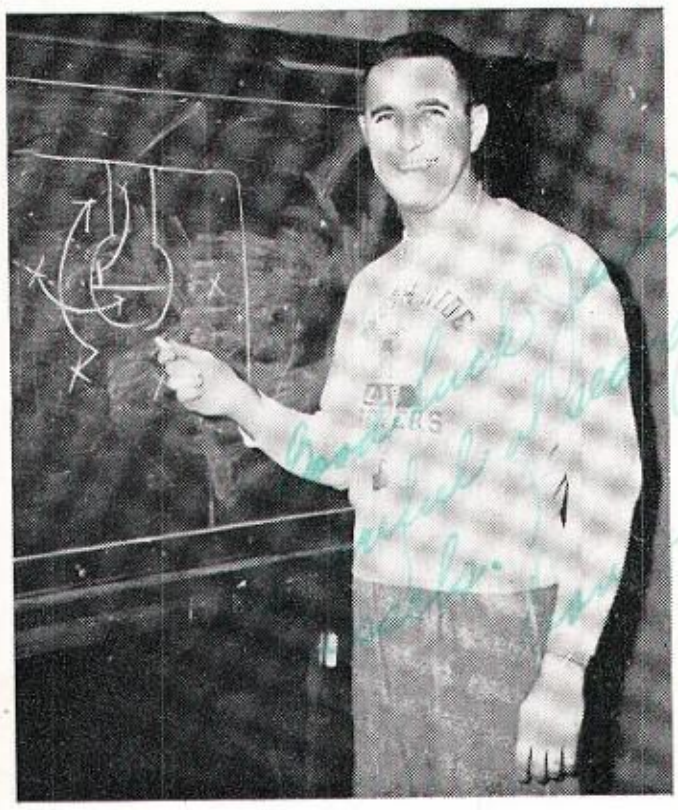
Shown Whooping It Up After Winning the Regionals

Coach Reichert is hung with a Hawaiian lei, and Bob Blackledge is about to be hanged by the victory net as the boys whoop it up after winning the Regionals. The team members are from left to right, first row: Chris Stavreti, Dan Howe, Coach Reichert, and Bill Campbell; second row: Terry Miller, Blackledge, Dave Matthias, John Lewis, George Wehrmeister, and Carl Stavreti; third row: Mike McCoy, John Beal, and Ned Byrer.



Veteran Coach Don Reichert completed his fifth season at South Side in a blaze of glory. Don did an excellent job of handling the boys again this year and deserves much of the credit for the squad's success in tournament play. He's a wonderful man, a great leader of boys, and a credit to South Side High School.

Don says of the team, "They had a very fine spirit, and it was a pleasure for the staff to work with them. They showed that they could play with the best and have commanded the respect and admiration of many South Siders and fans. Their record during the year and in the tourney will be remembered for years to come. They definitely have set a pattern which is typical of champions, and we are hoping that the boys who will make up teams in the future will be equal to meet the challenge, make the sacrifices, work as earnestly, and follow the pattern that has been set by this group."

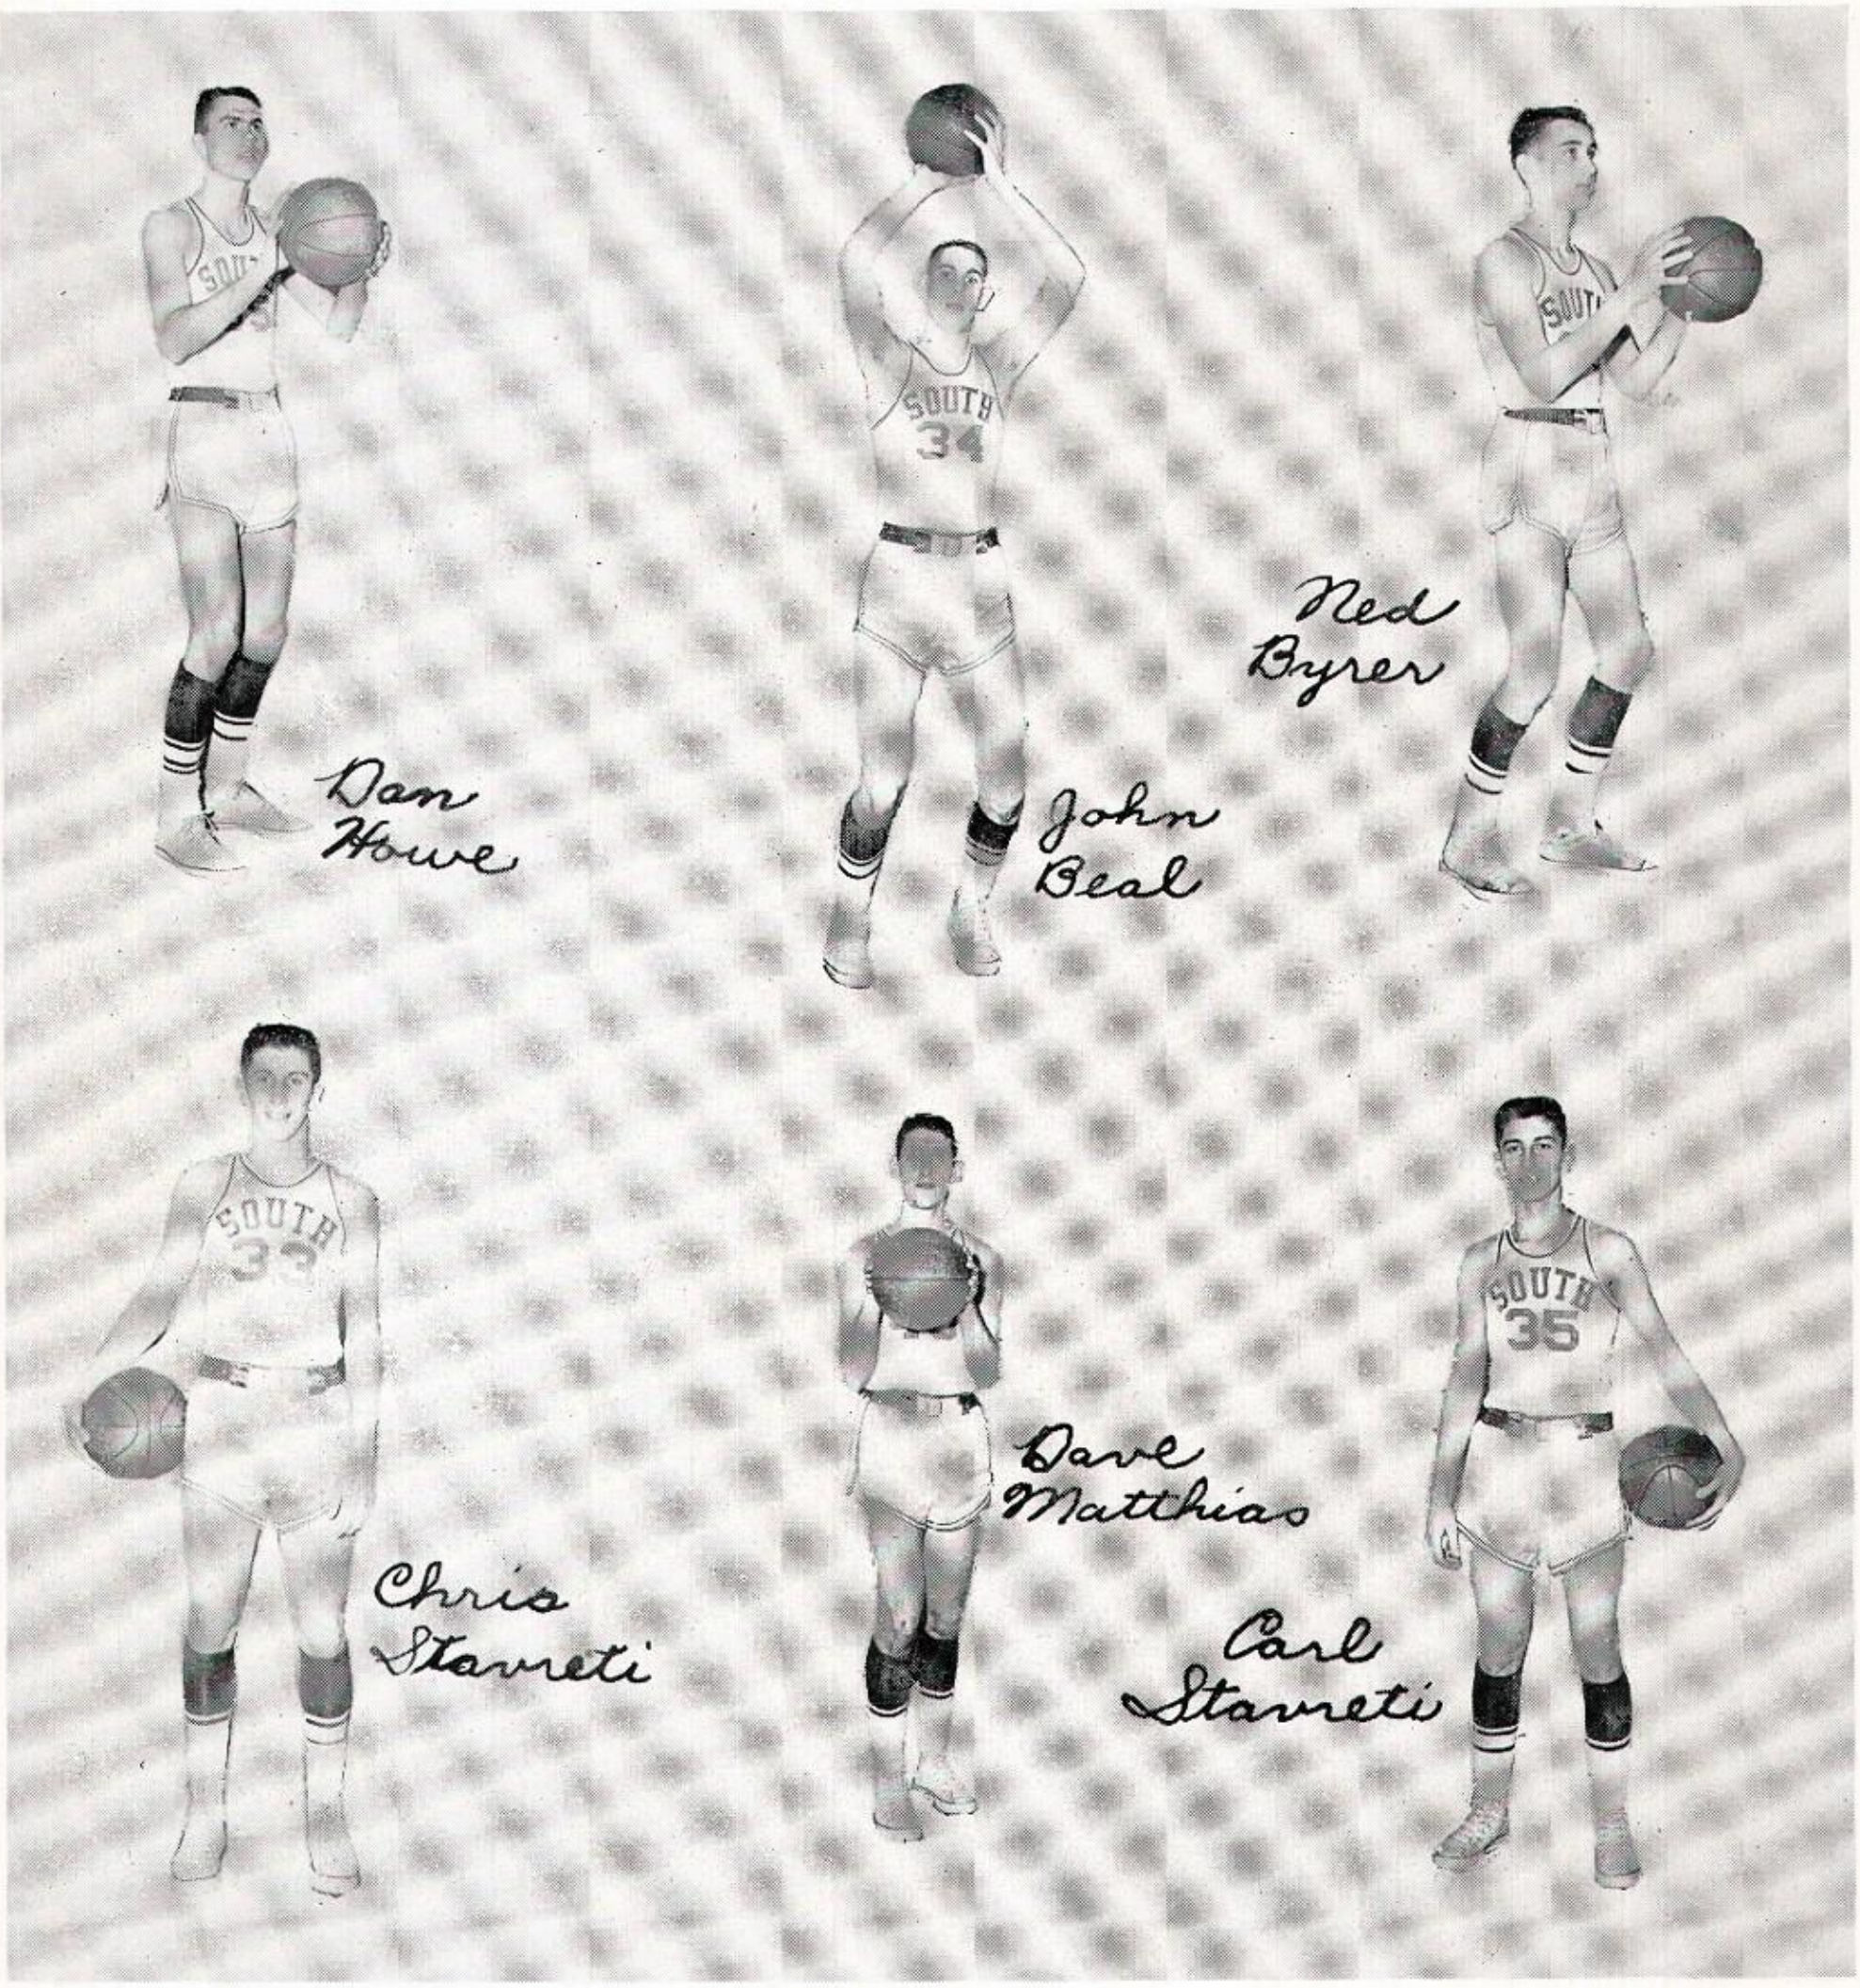
City . . . Sectional . . .

The 1955-'56 edition of the South Side Archers was tops . . . tops in their capturing three championships for the school and tops in the minds and hearts of their faithful fans. Our team gained post-season success for the first time in nine years, and when they retired from the tourney trail as one of the top eight teams in the state, they had besides the city, sectional, and regional crowns, a string of twenty-one victories on their victory belts. Many of the state's top teams felt the sting of the Archers' arrows this year.



Regional Champions

The Archers dropped this year's opener, picked up the pace, faltered a few times in mid-season, and then finished strong with ten straight wins through the end of the season and the tourney. Toward the end of the season, South floored a highly effective starting combo of George Wehrmeister, John Lewis, Bob Blackledge, Bill Campbell, and Terry Miller, who along with pinch-hitter John Beal will be lost via the diploma route. However, returning will be Dan Howe, Carl and Chris Stavreti, Dave Matthias, Mike McCoy, Ned Byrer, and excellent reserve and freshman teams.

Lower left: Bob Blackledge whirls off the pivot to lay one up in the first Central game.

Middle right: Lewie takes aim with his deadly one-handed foul shot in the first North game.

Lower left: The fans scream their delight as the Archers subdue North Side for the third straight time.

Upper right: Wormie hits a jumper from straightaway against Avilla in the Regionals.

Middle center: John Lewis drives through for an easy layup against Wabash in the afternoon game of the Semi-Finals.

Middle right: Bill Campbell goes in all alone again in the Wabash game.

Lower right: Campbell goes high in the air on a jump shot against Elkhart.

Lower left: Bob Blackledge whirls again on Monmouth's Norb Witte and hits on one of his four timely hook shots in the third period of the Monmouth game.

Upper middle: George Wehrmeister leaps high to bat in a rebound in the opening game of the season against Bluffton.

Lower middle: Question remains as to whether John Lewis is shooting the ball or whether he's using the Central player as a stepladder to grab the rebound.

Upper right: Terry Miller goes high to shoot a jump-shot over the hands of Elkhart's Dave Kollat.

Lower right: Dan Howe is the picture of concentration as he shoots a free throw in the first North Side game. Dave Matthias watches in the background.

GEORGE COLLYER
Track Coach

George Collyer, South Side's able and veteran track coach, will be remembered by all as a real builder of athletes. Mr. Collyer has spent seventeen successful years at South Side and has gained the respect of all who have worked with him. He has proved to be a great conditioner and a wise handler of boys. He has always taken pride in the fact that his boys are never beaten because they are not in condition. He is a strong link in the coaching staff here at South Side.

Racquetmen

Though hit hard by the graduation of its top four players, South Side's tennis squad promised to come up with another good season. With the exception of Lamont Hansen, the boys are all underclassmen with plenty of time to develop into outstanding racquetmen. The members of the squad are from left to right, first row: Lamont Hansen, Steve Gaskill, and Coach Everett Havens; back row: David Fell, John Bennhoff, and Ned Byrer.

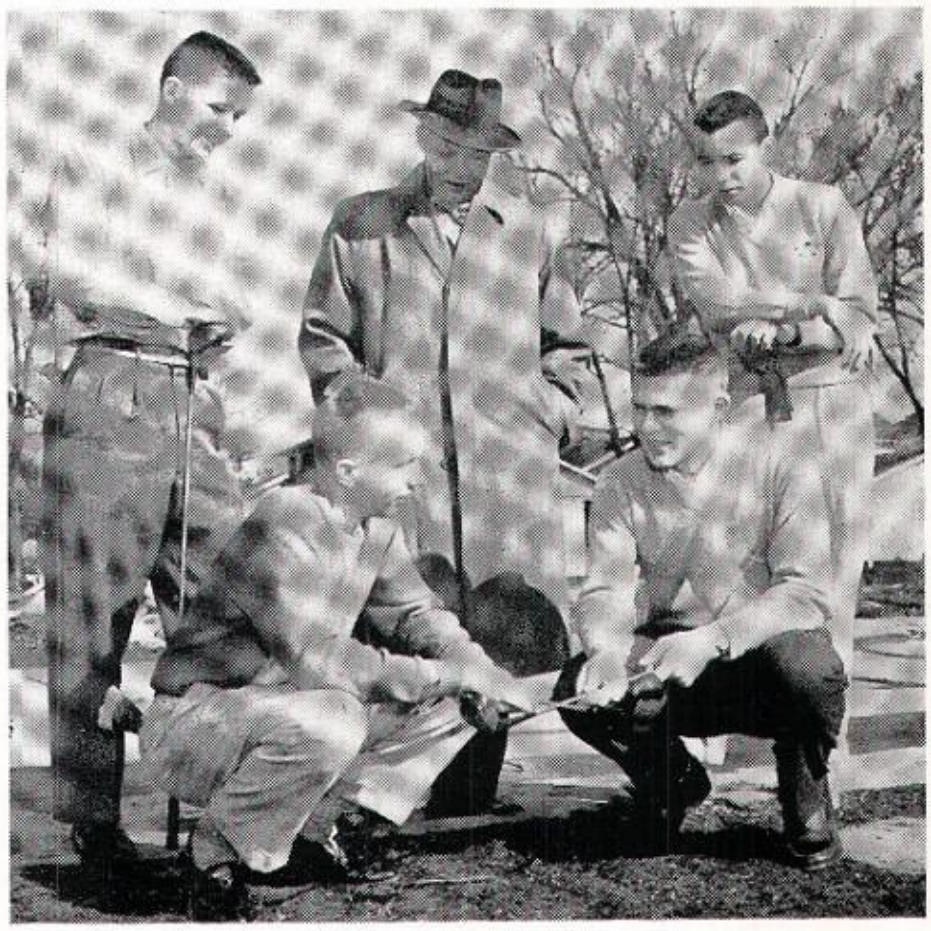
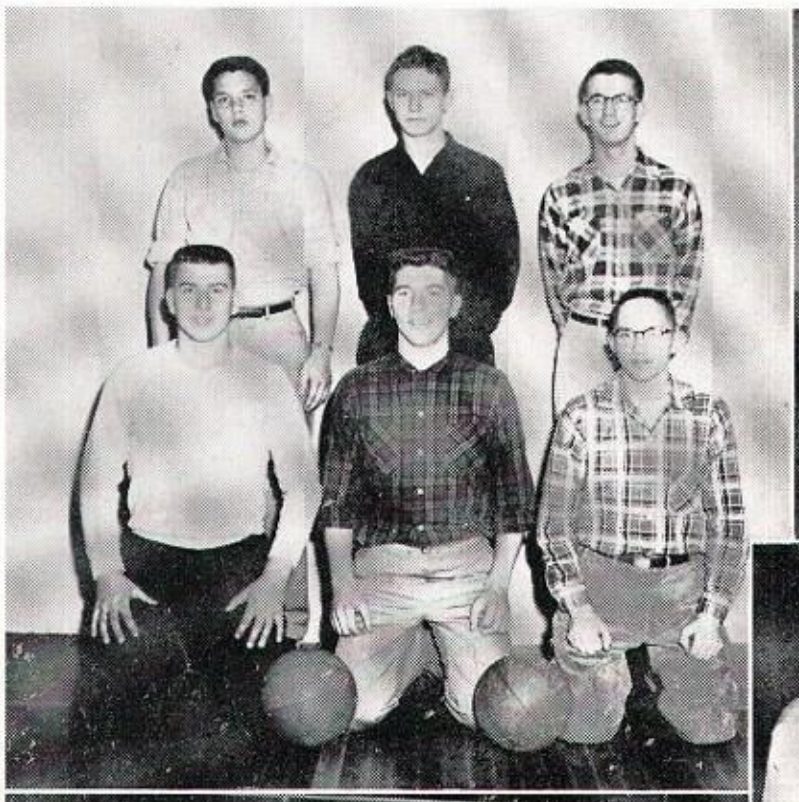
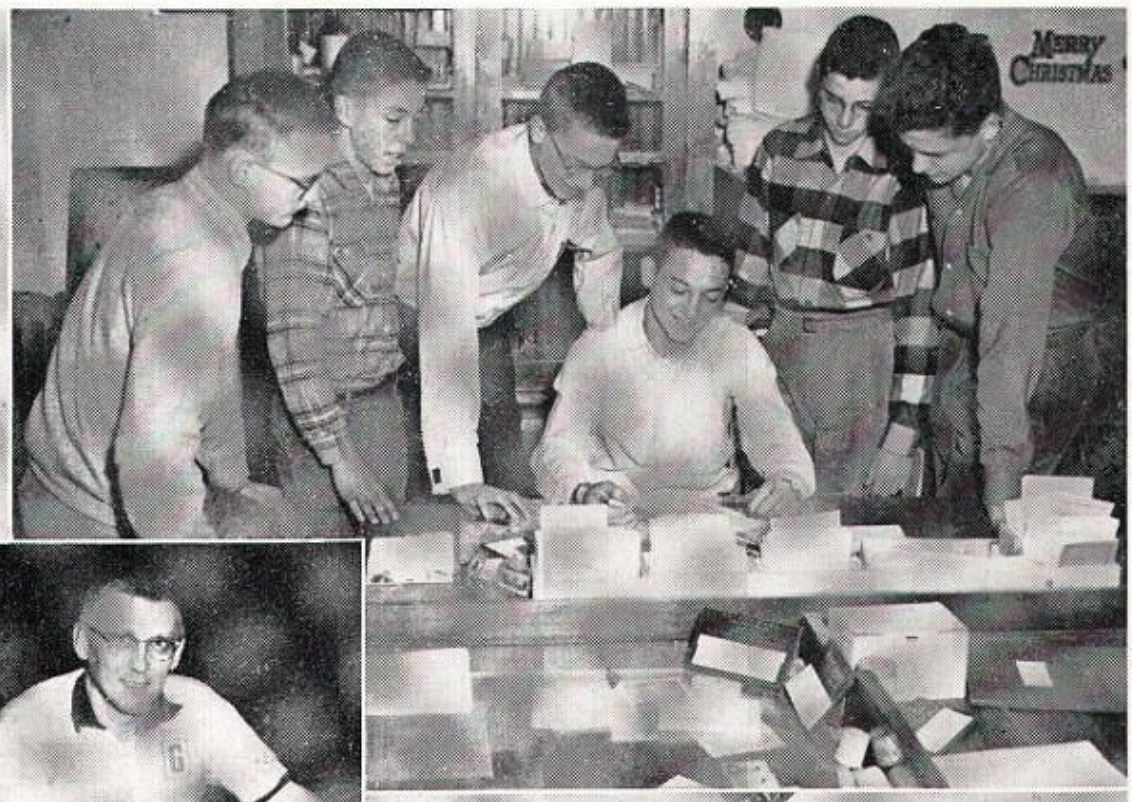
Green to Green

With March winds and then April showers, the golf clubs come out of the closet and go through a polishing process. South Side is known to have excellent golf teams perennially, and this year's edition promised to be no exception. The members of the squad are, back row: Fred Procise, Mr. Robert Drummond, coach, and Dave Clark; front row: Bill Berg and Dick Cantwell.







Growing Boys to Men

Lower right: Jimmie King shows his record-breaking form to the other division bowling champions, Barry Moser and Jerry Werling.

Middle: While the intramural was building to a great height, the cornerstone was suddenly damaged. Clair Motz, IM head, was taken critically ill on March 20 with a cerebral hemorrhage. Clair has done much to increase the popularity and participation in the four years he has been at South. During this past year more boys have participated than any years previously. Of the IM sports available, of course, the "Hoosier Hysteria" sport, basketball, is the favorite. The big track meet in the spring is also a favorite as are the bowling tournaments held in the fall and spring. Size is nothing to the intramural department as a three-weight system has been worked out to keep bigger boys from competing with smaller ones.

Upper right: Raring to go are the heavyweight football champs, the Crazy-Leg All Stars. In the line are Jerry Foust, Joe Cagle, Russ Oyer, Phil Giessler, Lamont Hansen, Jim Cagle, and Ross Elwell. Herb Stuelpe, John Beal, Monte Gerig, and John Sawyer fill out the backfield.

Middle right: "Goosing" it up a bit for the camera are middleweight volleyball champs, the Patricians. Kneeling are Tom Baumgartner and Chuck Mosure. "Palming the ball" are Bill Chapman, Herb Stuelpe, and Bill Harmison.

Bottom right: Posing in championship style are the 1955-56 free-throw champions, Dave Clark, Tom Crandall, and Monte Gerig.

Donna,
For a real sweet gal who is graduating.
Good luck always.

'Bricklayers of Sportsmanship'

Builders of health and good sportsmanship. This is the purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association. The girls work hard for their cherished letters, numerals, and pins, but enjoy themselves while doing so.

Approximately 400 girls participate each week in GAA. In this way they earn numerals, which require 300 points; letters, which require 1500 points; and pins, which require 2000 points. The name of the girl with the highest number of points over a period of four years is engraved on the high-point plaque. This year the high-point award turned out to be very close between Nancy Showalter and Becky Brinkroeger.

Big events of the GAA year are the annual Spring Show which was entitled, "Artistry in Rhythm," and the banquet, "Snowflake Supper," emceed by Nancy Showalter.

Activities enjoyed by GAA throughout the year include softball, speedball, volleyball, basketball. tumbling, and track. Extra activities include tennis, ping pong, and badminton.

Lower right; it's nothing to laugh about, Nancy! Nancy Showalter with 2,425 points and Becky Brinkroeger with 2,442 points were very close contenders for the high-point award in GAA.

Snaps

Thus alone can we attain
To those turrets, where the eye
Sees the world as one vast plain,
And one boundless reach of sky.

Upper left: Trying a new yell, Luba? Helping Miss Gouloff after a 1955 football game are Chuck Owen, Neil Diver, and Russ Oyer.

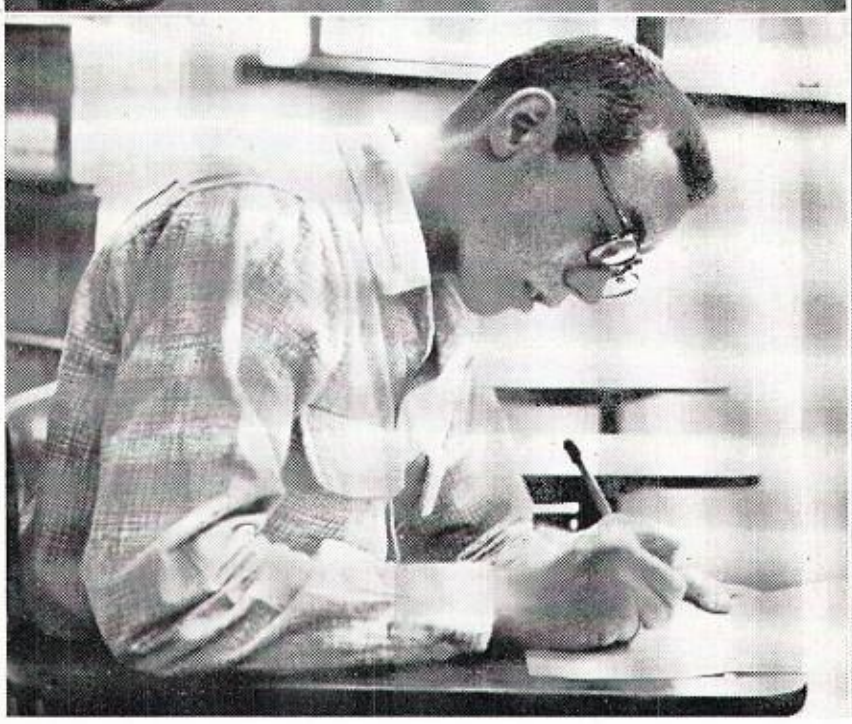
Lower left: Loyal Archers cheer their football team through an unsuccessful season.

Upper right: Who cracked the joke, Chris Litchin or Miss Harvey? Room 16 gets mighty crowded during a Times staff meeting.

Lower right: The dignified senior boys, Kirk Newell, Tom Doty, Jack Ford, Bill Davis, and Dave Clark, initiate a lowly freshman in the gym on the first day of the fall semester.



Upper left: Judy Hicks offers her talent to the Thanksgiving assembly.

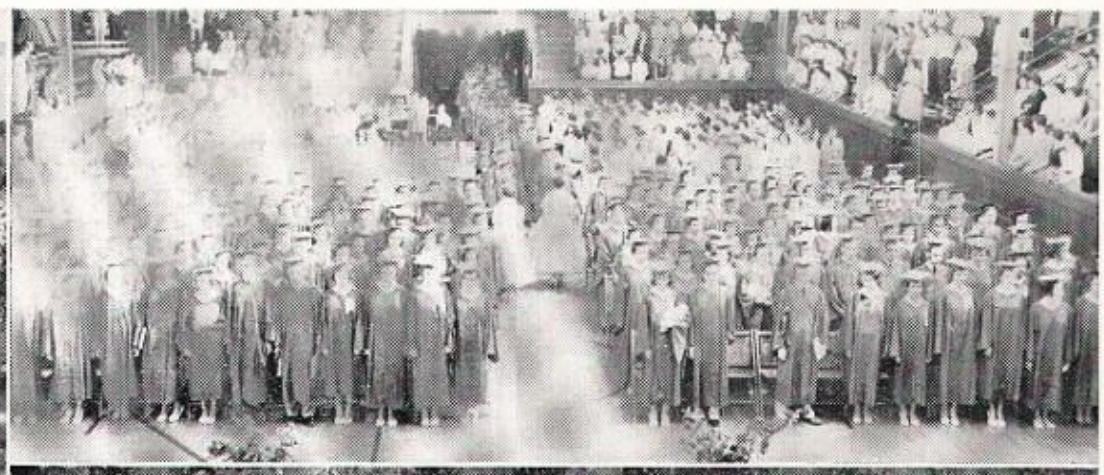
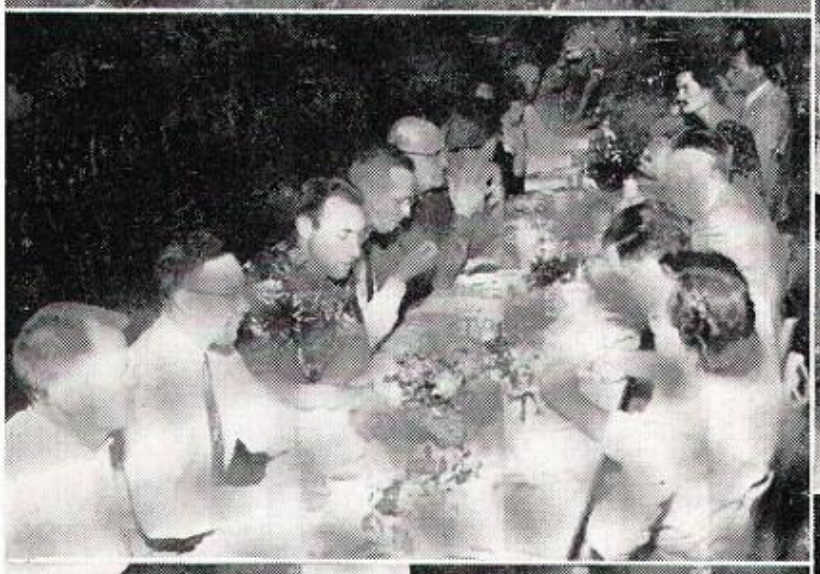
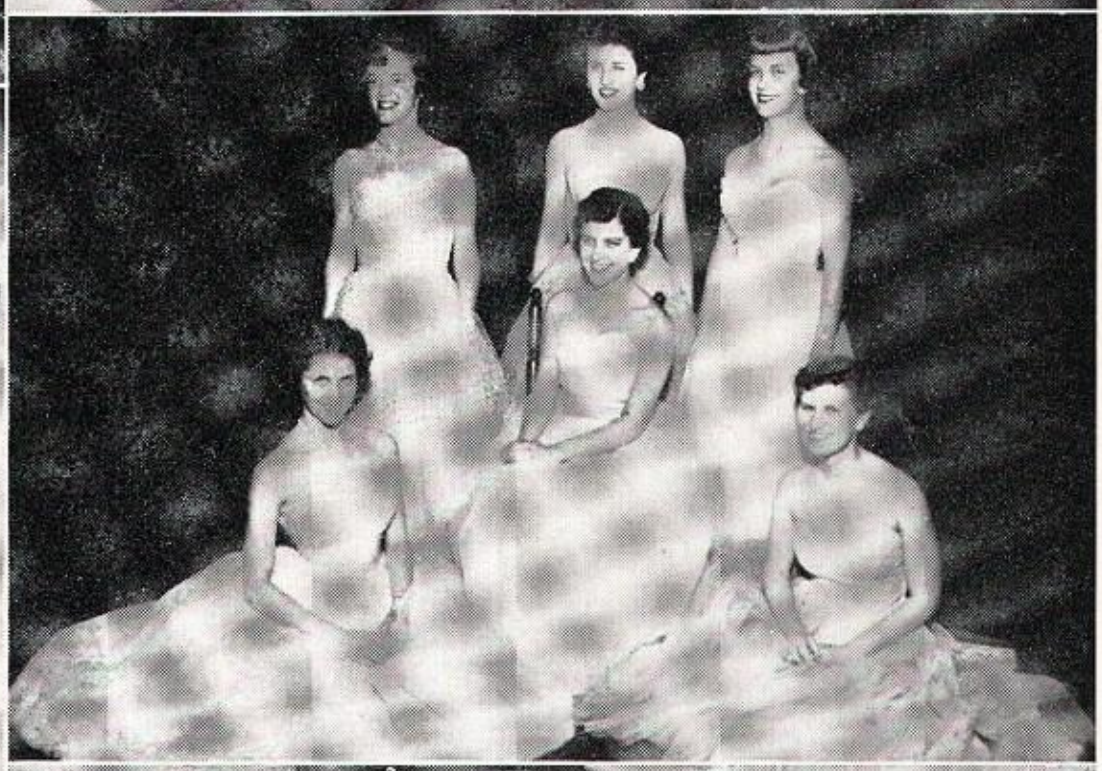
Upper right: The Christmas assembly cast takes that last bow.

Middle right: A serious moment from the Christmas assembly.

Lower right: "Look, Inney, it's snowin'," informs Molly Somers. Dave Clark scatters artificial snow on Lavon Portman, Doc Thompson, Tom Baumgartner, and Inney Moravec.





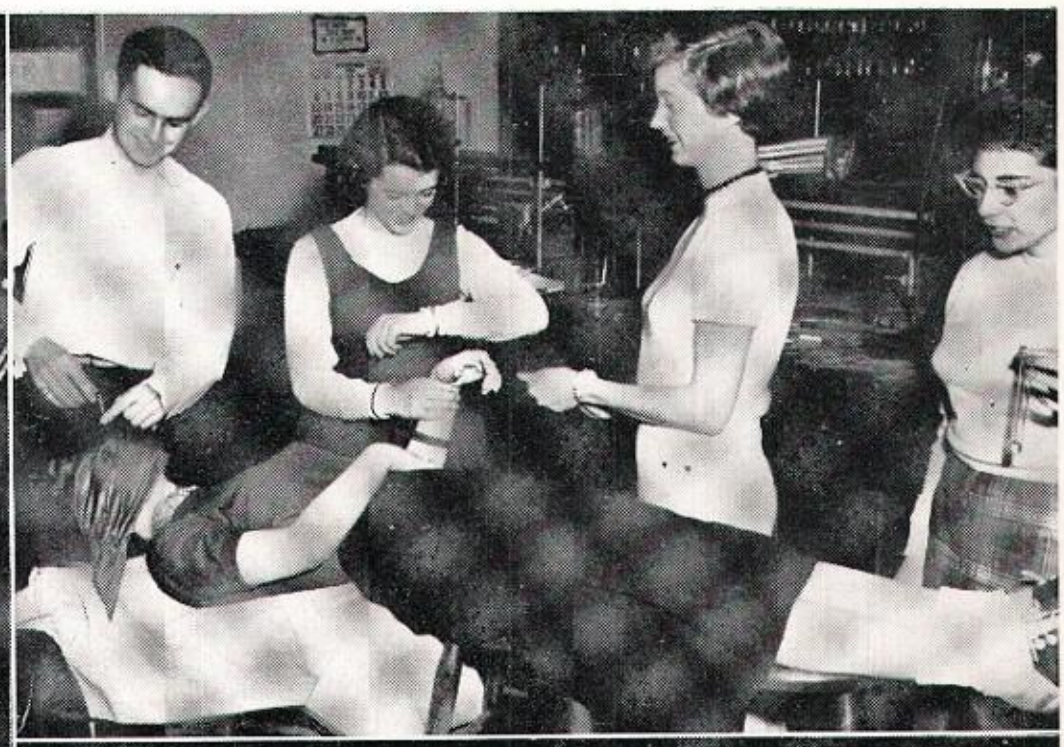


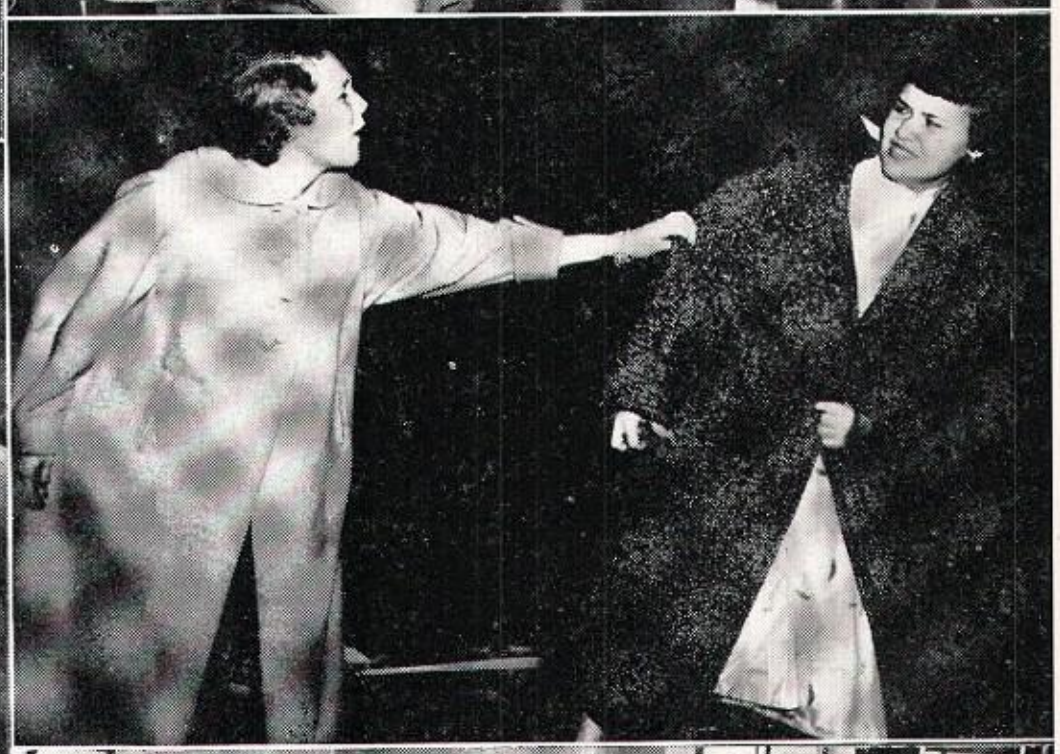
Upper left: Enjoying the shade of the mighty elm tree during fifth period are Dave Hollopeter, Mary Johns, Nancy Zeiler, Keitha Punsky, and, standing, Innie Moravec and Bill Berg.
Middle left: The faculty builds up their stamina by enjoying the food at the faculty picnic at McMillan Park.
Lower left: Looking like a bunch of ants, these busy Archers are scurrying to their seventh period classes.
Upper right: The class of '55 files in to be recognized for their achievements.

Upper middle right: The Ivy Day ceremonies of 1955.

Lower middle right: 1955 Ivy Day Queen Rosie Roof and her court, Mary Val Crouse, Nancy Evans, Julie Easterday, Jane Zeiler, and Joan Hattendorf.

Lower right: The mermaids of South, who placed in the city swim meet last summer, observe Caralyn Morrill's diving form. They are Liz Moore, Joan Simmons, Susie Bradley, Marcia Steere, Caralyn Morrill, Lydia Martindale, Mary Ann Wilkens, and Gail Baldwin.





Upper left: Money, money, and more money comes into the Totem office while Heather Schreffler, Diane Roe, and Ginny Pugh keep a countin' on the last day of the campaign.
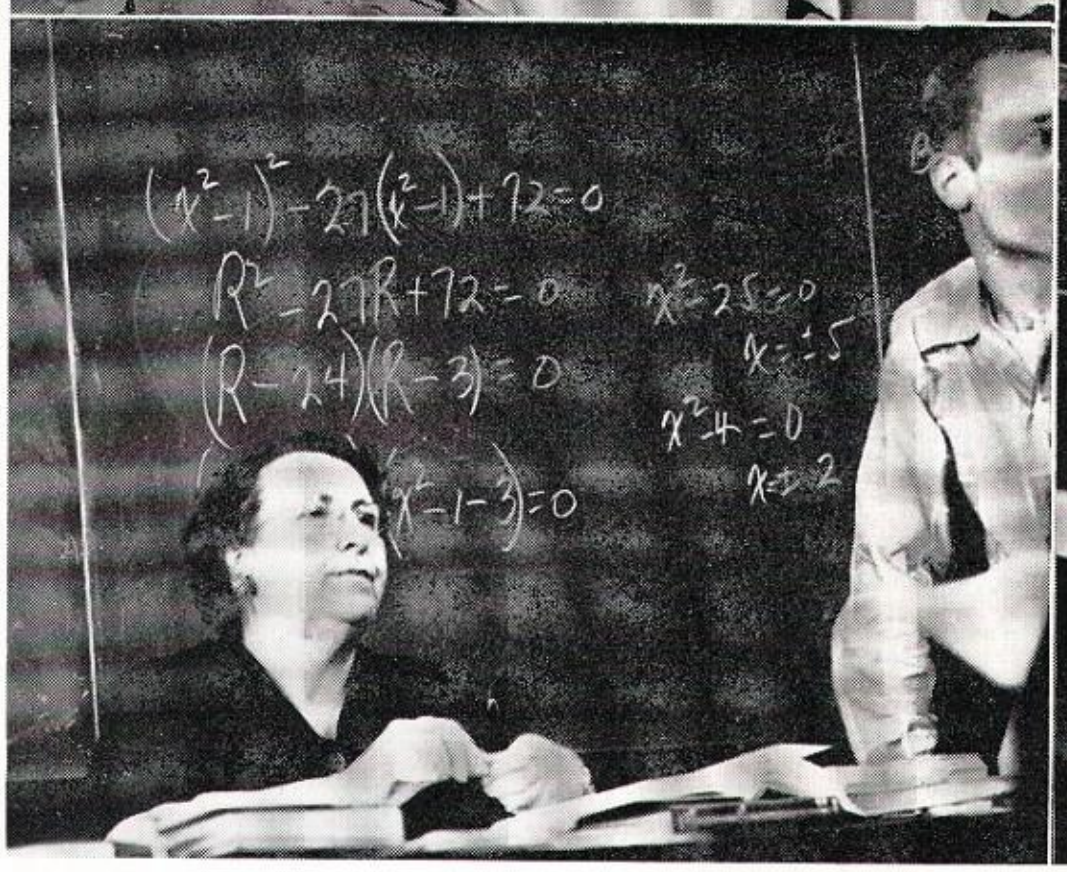
Upper right: Who's the patient? Phil Black, Lydia Martindale, Deanne Wissner, and Nancy Emerick are busy little beavers during their service period. (This is a non-credit course!)

Middle right: "Aw, come on," pleads Judy Clark while Susie Welch insists on doing more gabbing before departing from the Junior Banquet.

Lower right: "Say cheese!" as Mr. Ward snaps the Totem underclass pictures.

Answer to the question in the upper right picture: Judy Bedsworth!



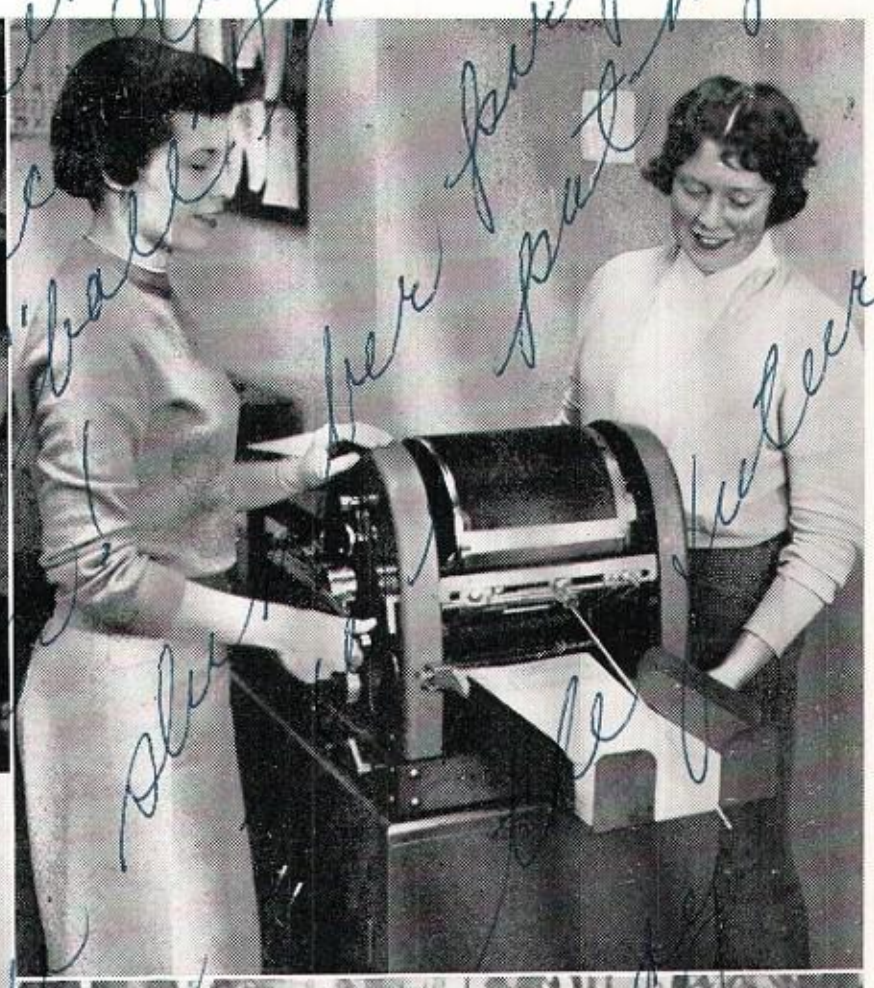
Upper left: "Now, where's the 'n'," wonders a little Archer lass, Marcia Steere, as she types out a Times story.

Middle left: Which dreamboat could these girls be talking about now? A bunch of sophomores converse with the juniors across the table at the Times picnic.

Lower left: "Bill, you'll never understand," sighs Miss Fortney as Mr. Gilsdorf seems to have interests elsewhere in the room.

Upper right: The "flirtatious five", Sue Berlien, Becky Brinkroeger, Lydia Martindale, Diane Roe, and Nancy Hill with Lydia as the queen, are chosen by Hi-Y as the queen and her court at the annual club dance on February 17. Dave Clark presents the crown; and Morrie Sanderson, the sceptor.

Lower right: Most people can't touch their toes on the ground let alone in mid-air as shown by acrobat Susie Sigrist while Susan Rothert and Charlene Armey watch during a workout on the trampoline.



Upper left: As Patsy's better half shys from the camera, Miss Harvey checks to see that everyone is having a good time at the Times fall picnic.

Middle left: "Only ten more yards, boys; you can make it," prays Coach Bobay. Judd Lowenhar holds the line marker.

Lower left: "What was that last name?" asks Flo Markoff, Times auditor, as Rita VonGunten, assistant advertising manager, reads bills.

Upper right: Sue Berlien and Charlene Elder turn out some masterpieces during a service period.

Lower right: Upsy-dazey!! Isn't the load getting a little heavy for you, Nancy? Judy Lepper bums a ride even though it's by way of Nancy Showalter.

Upper middle left: Humpty Dumptys at the Times picnic in Foster Park waiting for the king's horse to bring the king's men.

Middle right: "You know the rules!" exclaims Carolyn Beardsley as Judd Lowenhar watches her check Ginny Pugh's and Dave Eitman's dancing distance.

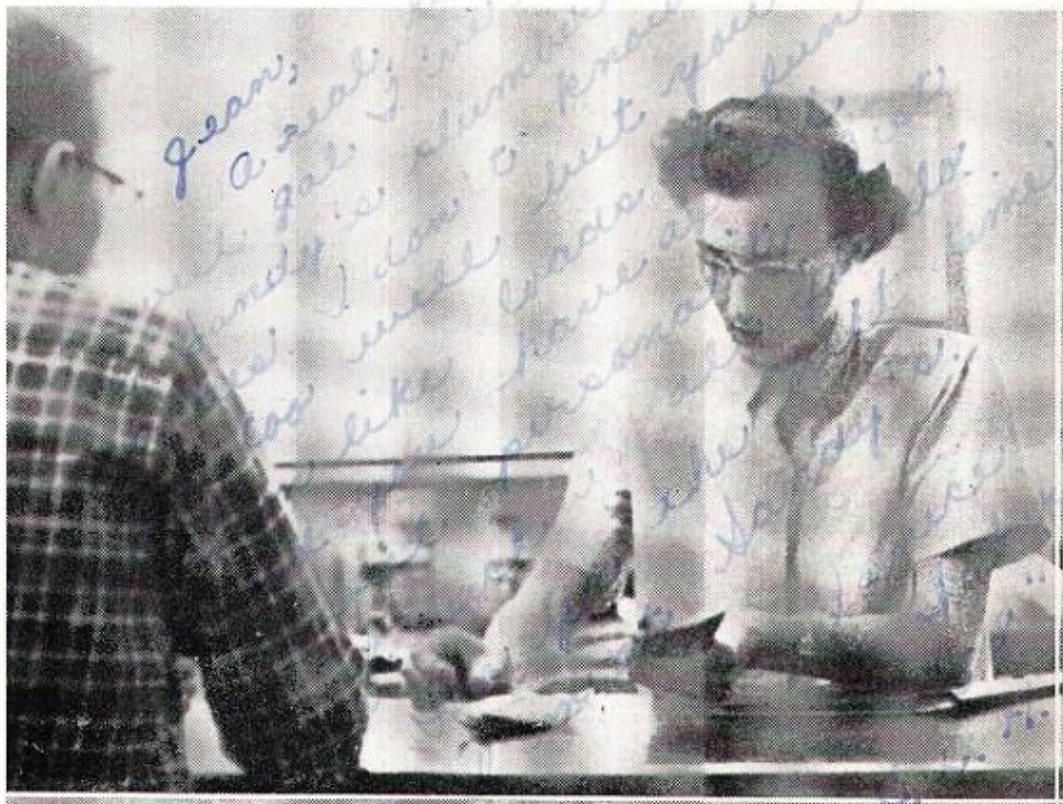
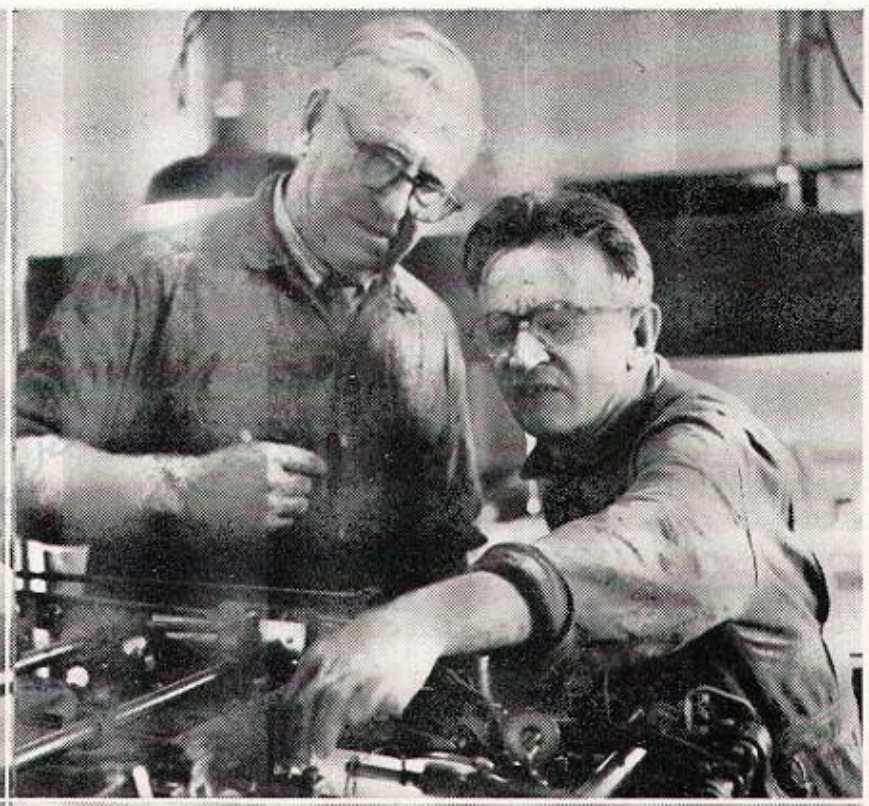
Upper right: A group of seniors anxiously await for another victory at a basketball game.
Middle right: Sally Hollis, Sheila Bradley, Mary Johns, and Ross Elwell admire one of the state flags at the Freedoms Foundation exhibition of flags.
Lower right: Hobrock's farm proves good place for a Senior party.

Upper left: Scotty shows Don Reichert, first-class Archer, the target which he is to hit while Mr. Geyer hopes for the best.
Middle left: It's a fact that not a soul leaves a Times picnic hungry. Here are a bunch of Times staff members "filling up."
Lower left: While enjoying the fresh air, students catch up on last-minute assignments during the noon hour.
Upper right: John Lewis leads the team out into a crowd of proud fans after winning another game in this year's basketball tournament.
Middle right: Martha Taylor, Jolly Clarkson, Marcia Steere, and Nancy Slick present a fashion show on Oakdale while sunning themselves.
Lower right: Cheerleader Becky Brinkroeger really lives it up at a pep session.

Upper left: You don't say, Phil? Dave Eitman, Ginny Pugh, and Peggy Robinson listen to Phil Black.
Middle left: Joan Hollman, JoAnn Blombach, Judy Lepper, and Sharon Simmers lack sitting space after one of the games at a party.
Lower left: "Tell 'em, Barb!" Moral support is given to our great team by Margo Martindale and Barb Bowyer. Lydia Martindale and Deanne Wissner don't look so sure at the South-North game.

Upper right: Spring has sprung and blossoms bloom. Carole Biggs, Janeann Thomas, and Janet Gripe enjoy the warm sunshine.
Middle right: What have we here? Members of the Times staff relive the days of their first childhood at the Times picnic.
Lower right: Judy Larko and Amelia Kachiamenis keep posted on the latest around other city high schools.





Upper left: Favorite friend, Frances Stobaugh, acquires another pal with a few words of wisdom.

Middle left: Is there an English teacher that wouldn't agree with Miss Lucy Osborne that there's nothing so terribly boring as grading themes?

Lower left: Dreaming up tomorrow's botany quizzes is Mr. Weber. Oh, what a life of leisure a teacher lives!

Middle left: Absorbing Mr. Wilson's exposition on the subject of diminishing marginal utility is Judy Cook, an ambitious economics student.

Upper right: The sleeping beauty of Archerland, John Lewis, takes time out from his vigorous routine to take a cat nap. Where, you ask? Why in the silence of the gym at noon, of course!

Bottom: Artistic talents weren't necessary during Sectionals when red paint appliers visited South Side. The wrong kind of school spirit was bound to invade (Yes, even at South Side) the fine school spirit shown by all three schools during tournament time. The pupils were even more resentful of wrong done by their own school members than by members of other schools. Some of the paint daubers were trailed down. All schools hope that the right kind of school spirit will prevail in the future so our athletic and other school relations may be maintained on a high level. South Side wants to be as proud of its fans as it is proud of its teams.

Upper left: Nancy Horton and Judd Lowenhar enjoy sitting on the milk machine before they begin drinking. Sharon Stallings hands Judd his refreshment while Diane Roe and Nancy Showalter watch.
Lower left: The loss of the final game of the Semi-Finals to Elkhart was a hard one for everyone including Marcia Steere.
Upper right: A skit at the pep session before the Regionals.
Middle right: Marcia Schultz speaks at senior play practice in the cafeteria as Annette Voorhees, Deanne Wissner, and Paula McConnell wait their turns. Mr. Morey can be seen in the foreground.
Lower right: "All trash must be thrown away" says Archie as Nancy Horton sticks her head out of the trash can. Judy Bedsworth, Sue Wallheiser, Judd Lowenhar, Chuck Owen, Nancy Showalter, Diane Roe, and Sharon Stallings look on in amusement.

Let us do our work as well,
Both the unseen and the seen;
Make the house, where Gods may dwell,
Beautiful, entire, and clean.

Dear Pea-nut Oil,
Although our hearts have been torn apart,
and our wishes thrown asunder.
Our joys haven't all been for naught,
Because they're like the storms and thunder.
They've existed before, and they will again,
after our schooling is spent.
We'll be together again, and then,
We'll think about pitching our tent

Ayon,

I hope you like my new handwriting. Its the new style. Right now I've got a pen in the shoulder so it's quite fun now. 12:20 (10 minutes later) Its okay now. We had a lot of fun together and I know we will have even more. Remember the time we were chasing those boys and got lost. I'll never forget that night. Although we were both pretty out of our wits it was still a lot of fun. As I'm writing, remember all of the times we snuck in pool and then practically killed ourselves jumping off of the high dive. (This little note of mine is continued on page 32. turn the page if you want to hear the end)
